MAC HOBSON

In 1962, Mac Hobson was a founder member of the North East Motor Cycle Racing Club, and every Wednesday night Mac would turn up at club nights and although in later years he became a very successful and indeed famous sidecar racer, he still was the same quiet and unassuming person. Mac would win a TT or do well in the Grand Prix but on a Wednesday club night, you had to drag the details out of Mac to find out how he had fared the previous weekend.

Some younger competitors or spectators here today will probably be unaware of how successful Mac was on solo's, in 1957 Mac and I raced in the I.O.M. Southern 100, Mac on an old 350cc Manx Norton, myself on a 500cc Gold Star.

Mac followed up by racing a Cowie A.J.S. to success at Kirkcaldy, Errol, Gask, Charterhall, Scoborough, Cadwell, Oulton, Mallory and the TT in the early 1960's.

In the middle 60's Mac moved onto sidecars and became known as The Fastest Geordie on Three Wheels and a great favourite with spectators, riders and press for many years on the Ham Yam "Flying Pig" until his unfortunate accident shortly after the start of the 1978 Sidecar TT.

As a past winner at this post TT meeting, the Mac Hobson Trophy takes on an extra meaning at Mallory.

As president of the N.E.M.C.R.C. I am pleased to see the Mac Hobson Trophy raced for at this Mallory meeting and to see so many of his friends and fellow competitors here today. Thank you for coming.

Les Siddle
