Dear Members,

Please excuse how the magazine was thrown together this time, but with Mark leaving so suddenly I had to take over, and I am not so clever as Mark. Please forgive my spelling errors and other wise. No doubt Mark will ask for a copy and point out all my errors. Good luck to who-ever takes over the mag.

Best wishes to the club.

Mrs. Price. (Marks Mum)

PRICE Mouth of Moredon

Well Folks, here it is, the very last edition of Price - Mouth of Moredon. Yes Folks, Pricey is going at last. Is that a sigh I hear? Could be! Yes I am actually leaving the protective wing of the Moredon Schoolboy Scramble and going out to work in the big wide world, as, yes you guessed it, as a journalist. A real, well as I can ever be, journalist with Trials & Motocross News no less! I was to have joined T. & MX in Morecambe in January, after spending the Bristol "Dirt Bike 79" show week on their stand. But an early phone call on a Monday morning changed all the plans and ruined my lay-in. By the time you read this I will be living in Morecambe in Lancashire, working as the schoolboy scrambles co-ordinator and the second motocross specialist along-side Dave Dewhurst. That in effect means I will take charge of testing all the machines up to 125cc, even the new 80cc's. I also got to try out the bigger bikes as well with Dave Dewhurst. Fun ah!

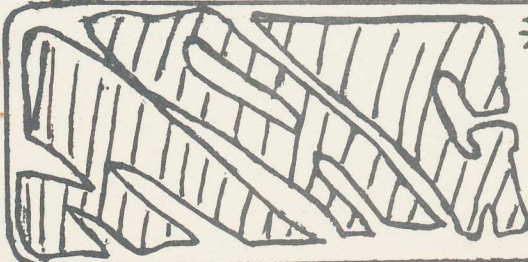

Last Sunday, if you read this on the Sunday of the meeting, I rode at Brookthorpe as an adult junior. To tell you the truth after qualifying for the 250 final and then falling off twice, but still finishing, I was shattered! In my next heat I was in second place behind Martin Brough before I crashed my brains out, literally. I got into an enormous tank-slapper and finally came to rest on my head, after clouting my knee, among other things, on the tank. The throttle cable was torn out and the insides broken into several pieces, so ended my day. Still I enjoyed it.

Well I have got to go now as it is late last Sunday, if you know what I mean, and I have soon to leave for Morecambe as I start work with them first thing Monday morning (23rd. October). So it is good-bye for now and I hope we will meet again some sunny day (Sunday). Or perhaps I will see you at the show???????

All the best,

Mark
