The Southampton and District M.C.C. hope you have enjoyed the days racing and wish you a safe journey home.

We would also like to thank everyone who helped us promote the event and especially the following:-

- The Ministry of Defence and the Land Agents.
- The Andover St. Johns.
- The Caterers, Cherrysons.
- The Ringwood Public Address.
- The Commentator Mr. John Mould.
- And to all the marshals from our own and other Clubs, especially Portsmouth M.C.C. for loaning and manning their G.P. starting gate.

THE NEXT EVENT ON THIS COURSE IS THE ST. PAUL TROPHY SCRAMBLE.....29th. JUNE 1975.

Don't forget these exciting dates in the motocross calendar.

On JUNE 22nd. 1975
The Portsmouth Motor Cycle Racing Club

present the

250 cc WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP MOTOCROSS
OF GREAT BRITAIN

at their Ladies Mile, Chalton circuit. (signposted from the A3 Petersfield to Portsmouth road).

Entries promised from Belguin, Czechoslovakia, West Germany, U.S.S.R., Britain and others.

Full star supporting entry promised.

On JULY 20th. 1975
The Newbury and District Motor Cycle Club

present the British round of the

750 F.I.M. European Sidecar Cross

at their popular "Fox and Hounds circuit" (off the main Newbury to Oxford road).

This event is really the battle of the giants with sidecar crews from Switzerland, Holland, Belguin, U.S.S.R., and Britain all in with a chance to be the next European Champions.
