VIC GOODEN writes:

Pirates 47: Wimbledon 43. Dons first League whopping of the year. A terrific show, Pirates. You supporters watch them continue the good work!

ROGER BOWNS, Evening Echo correspondent:
A fine win, Pirates. Well deserved, too, and just reward for your tenacious riding all through this league campaign.

WILMOT FRANKE, Editor Bournemouth Times series (publishing again!) Congratulations, Poole Pirates. A very fine victory over Europe's strongest speedway side. Keep up the good work, and good luck in the rest of your league season.

MARTIN BLYTHE, Western Gazette correspondent:
Sensational, Pirates, a really sensational win. Thanks for a thrilling evening, and a good story.

DAVE LANNING, our own Public Relations chief:
I wonder what's happened to all our early-season "knockers" now. And it's strange we've had no comment from certain promoters who are beginning to feel the chips from the "chopping blocks." Good show, boys, and keep heading up that league table.
