Victory

Honda V-fours lead the world. V-supremacy is realised with Honda's outright victory in the 1983 and 1984 TT Formula One World Championships. A sensational one-two by Joey Dunlop and Roger Marshall in 1984 - with the V4 unbeatable in the Championship stakes for two years.

The Isle of Man TT in 1983 was the ultimate proof. Honda V4 RS850s battled with the opposition's 1000s and came out on top. And Joey Dunlop stole the lap record with a shattering 115.73mph run.
