1985 BRITISH MOTO-CROSS CHAMPIONSHIP

FOREWORD

May I on behalf of Bootle Scrambles Club, take this opportunity of welcoming you to the Barfield circuit for the second round of the Camel sponsored British Motocross Championship, and at the same time, express our appreciation of the tremendous support the club has once again received from the village of its birth. This year's Championship series promises, both on paper and on the evidence of the first round at Hawkstone, to offer the most exciting racing seen in this country for many years. Rarely has this country produced, at the same time, so many riders with real world title aspirations. Two former world champions, Graham Noyce and Neil Hudson are in contention for this year's British and World crowns, in competition with British Champion Dave Thorpe, who very narrowly missed the world title last year. Giving them a very hard time are Jem Whatley and Lawrence Spence, who provided the main challenge to Thorpe's supremacy here at Bootle last year. Both demonstrated at Hawkstone that there are unlikely to be any runaway victories for anyone this year, by sharing the honours equally with the champion. Attracting a great deal of interest this season is the performance of young Mark Banks, Son of the Baron himself, who once missed the world champions p only by the manner in which the rules were interpreted, Mark even rides like his father. He is currently lying in fourth place after three good rides in the first round.

Of particular interest to local supporters will be the performance, in the Championship races, of David Watson, whom we have come to regard in some sense as a local rider, since his career in England began as a member of the Bootle Club, and that of Bona fide locals Don Brockbank and Mark Fulton.

In the qualifying series, the area is well represented by Mayson Wear, Steve Bircher and Rob Butler. They have to compete for the time being, against top American rider Danny 'Magoo' Chandler who, under the rules, must qualify for the British Series by accumulating points in at least three rounds of the Championship. He is likely to romp away with maximum points today, as he did in the first round a fortnight ago, and is likely to be enhancing the championship races after the third round. We wish them all a successful day, and look forward with you to a good day's racing.

Thank you for coming.

Competition tyres with no competition

Whatever the event, you won't find tyres to match the Pirelli Motocross range.

lean on

Tyres like the MT32 Sandcross and the MT35 Hardcross with many brilliant performances in 125. 250 and 500cc motocross events, firm favourites of World Grand Prix top riders. Pirelli motocross tyres have outperformed every other tyre for the last three years, becoming outright winners of the 125 and 500cc motocross world championships.

New for 1985 is the MT37 Lagunacross, a paddle designed tyre for greater performance in deep sand and mud, and not forgetting the clubman's favourite MT27 Deltracross for all round performance. Ask your dealer now for more details on a range of tyres that stand up to anything including the competition.
