Motorcycle Maintenance

LPS#3

- Heavy Duty 2-year Metal Protector
- 1. Finest drive chain lubricant. Will not sling off.
- 2. Protects batteries and cables from corrosion.
- 3. Lubricates and protects metals when in storage.
- 4. Harmless to rubber, plastic, paint, finishes, fabrics.

LPS#1

- The 4-way Greaseless Metal Protector
1. Dries wet ignitions, electrical systems in seconds.
 2. Stops rust on all metal parts, fuel tanks in seconds.
 3. Cleans dust and dirt from electrical areas to prevent loss of conductivity.
 4. Loosens frozen parts fast.
 5. Lubricates even most delicate mechanisms.
 6. Harmless to rubber, plastic, paint, finishes, fabrics.

FOR BEST RESULTS: Clean chain and sprocket of oils, grease dirt, etc. Apply LPS-3 by spraying or dipping. Allow set-up time of 8-30 hours, depending on weather conditions, to allow film to fully mold to metal. When applied properly, LPS-3 will not sling off, rub off, or attract and mix with dust, dirt, sand and grit as do conventional lubricants. Re-apply from time-to-time as needed.

The Motor Cycle British Moto Cross Championship

by Motor Cycle's
Chris Myers

BEENHAM PARK, READING

Graham Noyce is the Champ! But the 'Motor Cycle' sponsored British moto cross championship is far from over yet and there are plenty of other battles to be fought and won, and plenty of other places to be decided.

As our top moto crossers line up at Beenham Park today there are just 10 points separating second placemen 1975 British Champion Vic Allan and young Neil Hudson and there is the makings of a super tussel. And don't forget - at the start of the last round at Tenby 19 points separated these two . . . it will be close.

The man who came so close to beating Noyce in the second leg of the last championship round - John Banks - will be out on the big CCM and is sure to turn in a thrilling performance.

So too is fourth man in the table - 34 years old Vic Eastwood who gave Hudson a run for his money at Tenby on the Stadium CCM.

So that's the prospect for you all today: fast, exciting and furious action from our top riders. What more can you ask for a good afternoon's entertainment?

The remaining round of the series is:

October 17th Ladies' Mile, Chalton, Hants - Portsmouth MCRC
