Foreword

Welcome to the Classic Superprix '91.

Since the 1950's, Brands Hatch has always been at the forefront of short circuit motorcycle racing and during the Classic period the great names took part in some memorable racing. We have some of these great names and machines here again for you to enjoy and to marvel at!

Riders and machines that race been invited and that we expect to appear in the Exotic machine/rider demonstrations at the time of going to press include:- Colin Seeley, John Blanchard, Pip Harris, John Cooper, Phil Read, Chris Vincent, Percy Tait, Ray Pickerill, Dan Shorey, Alex George, Charlie Sanby, Tony Godfrey, Bobby Rowe, Hans-Otto Butenuth, Chas Mortimer, Malcolm Uphill, plus non-riding motorcycle racing personalities such as Syd Lawton, Geoff Monty, Les Williams, Ralph Englehart and several of the original German URS team members, then there are the World Championship winning URS 4 cylinder sidecar outfit, Seeley-URS 4 cylinder solo, BMW RS500 sidecar outfit, World Championship winning BSA sidecar outfit, BMW 75RS solo, Yamsel, F1 Ducati, Buel Harley, Taihatsu, Works M.Z.'s Pladdys Honda, original production racing Bonnevilles, Tridents and Rocket Threes, Les Williams Legend, the M.V.'s of the M.V. Owners Club, and others.

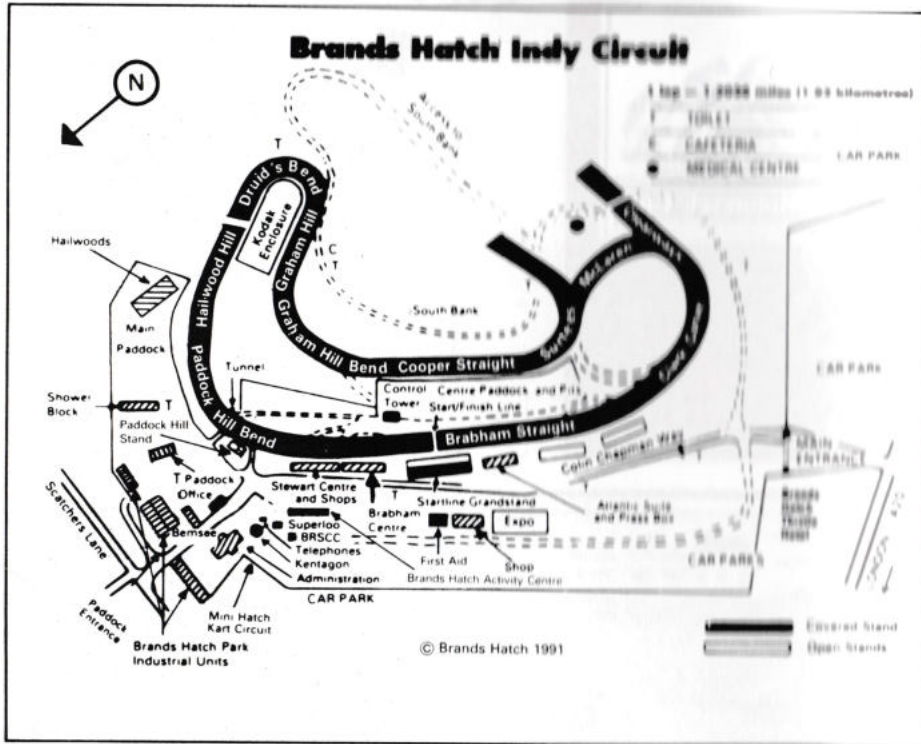

In addition there are about 300 classic racing machines on the paddock, all of a type raced in the Classic period so you will get a good idea of what motorcycle racing was like in the 50's and 60's racing years. Please remember that all the people racing or parading their machines today do so for the love of the sport and their machines and not for financial gain. There is no prize money. Classic racing is a pure sport!

The lovely Ms Jane Petty will be here to present the Ray Petty Trophy to the winner of the Ray Petty Norton only race to take place on Saturday.

The CRMC would like to say a special thanks to John Blanchard and the Team URS in bringing their truly exotic machines to the Classic Superprix and thank them for the terrific amount of time and effort this entails.

Thanks also to all the machine owners and riders and various sponsors too many to list, a big thank you from us all.

We hope you enjoy yourselves as much as we will!
