Welcome to Brands Hatch for the first meeting of the 1996 season. Many well-known names will be racing today together with a few new ones.

Last year's overall BMCRC champion, Nick Bramley, has retired but his former machine is expected to be challenging for 125cc honours in the hands of Matt Taylor. He will no doubt have a tussle on his hands with riders of the quality of Sonjah Parsons contesting this class as well as previous champion John Ansell and Gareth Jones. Watch out too for Rik Unthank.

Some familiar names are still there in the other single cylinder classes but it is hard to tell who will emerge at the top with the likes of Chris Basham and Rob Hunt riding 250's and Stuart Shaw, Lawrence Barry, Kris Holland and Paul Stonebanks in the field on big singles.

Despite Formula Junior champion Mick Fincham moving up to open class racing the FJ will still be keenly contested and you can expect names at the front to include Martyn Johnson, Tim Mathias, Craig Millward, Darren Mowat and Roger Ford.

As mentioned Mick Fincham will be contesting the Open Junior aboard an RS250 Honda although he is not riding today. Established open rider Les Brace can be expected to be at the head of the leading pack..

In the Open Senior, established stars Steve Dyer and Ian Oatridge may well see a challenge emerging from the ever improving Kevin Nevill and former Singles champ Trev Stafford, as well as some potentially very quick upgraded novices in the form of Dave Cohen, John Leigh-Pemberton, Ian Walker and, in particular, Barry Holloway. Supercup contender from last year, Tony Jiminez, should also be near the front as will Chris Satchwell who will be having his first ride on a new Honda in readiness for a season of Thunderbike Supercup racing.

The LC's will feature riders such as both Paul Hogan and Paul Hogan! Fin Reynolds and Nick Saunders will be in the thick of the action together with Andy MacDonald, whilst in the TZR's you can expect a repeat of last season's exciting racing featuring Rik Ballerini, Ian "Bertie" Bassett, Ian Brown, Pat Johnson and Ron Ross.

The novices will again produce much entertainment and, as ever, at least one star of the future.

Sidecar racing will see last year's double champions Jeff Matthews and Marie Wright under fire from well-known National Formula Two runners like Peter Knight/Philip Roberts and Bruce Moore with a new as yet unknown passenger.

Apart from the usual Lydden meetings we will be back at Brands Hatch for the season's close in October. Our May trip to Snetterton still stands as does the now annual pilgrimage for a weekends racing to Pembrey in South Wales.

For many the highlight of last season was the long weekend in France where at the lovely, grippy and well organised Croix circuit we were blessed with some tremendous weather and a real holiday atmosphere. The whole event was such a success that we just had to do it again and this year the racing will be over the weekend of 13/14 July. Set in a beautiful part of Nord-Pas you are able to find all the delights that rural France has to offer in terms of good cafes, brasseries, wine bars and restaurants as well as some impromptu paddock barbies and parties. Cheap ferry deals are arranged and, Oh I nearly forgot, you get to race your bike for two days as well.
