MOTO-CROSS
CHAMPION
OF 1956

Like most other leading Moto-Cross, trials and racing riders, Les Archer knows how much depends on effective braking. That's why he chooses Ferodo Anti-Fade Brake Linings—reliable and powerful even over the toughest sections of the course.

BP Energol 'Visco-static'

MOTOR OIL

FOR THEIR TWIN-CYLINDER ENGINES

What Norton owners should know about BP Energol 'Visco-static'

Gives easier starting · Gives marked saving in cylinder and piston ring wear · Reduces petrol consumption · Changeover procedure is to drain while hot and refill with BP Energol 'Visco-static'. If you have not been using a detergent oil run for 500 miles then drain again and refill.

AFTER many thousands of miles of test running with a Norton 600 c.c. Twin, Norton Motors Ltd. have approved BP Energol 'Visco-static' for their range of twin cylinder models — Model 99 (600 c.c. Twin), Model 77 (600 c.c. Twin) and Dominator 88 (500 c.c. Twin).

BP Energol 'Visco-static' is Britain's most advanced motor oil. It produces a marked reduction in cylinder and piston ring wear, gives easier starting from cold, a saving in petrol and better performance. BP Energol 'Visco-static' is also for use all the year round.

Do not change to BP Energol 'Visco-static' if your Norton is shortly due for an overhaul but, instead, use the normal grade of BP Energol recommended in your instruction book.

THE BRITISH PETROLEUM COMPANY LIMITED

'Visco-static' is a trade-mark of The British Petroleum Company Limited

FLAG SIGNALS

It is important to note that the F.I.M. International Flag Code will be operating at this Meeting.

RED FLAG—Stop all drivers.

YELLOW FLAG—Danger, drive slowly.

GREEN FLAG—Course clear.

BLUE FLAG—Give way to driver about to pass you.

BLACK BOARD OR FLAG WITH DRIVER'S NUMBER—That driver to stop.

BLACK AND WHITE CHEQUERED FLAG—Finish.

YELLOW WITH BLACK DIAGONAL CROSS—Last lap.

No signal of any of the above descriptions or similar thereto shall be made by any driver's attendant, or by any person other than an Official.

The start of all races will be controlled by means of Red and Green Starting Lights. On the showing of the Red Light drivers will be under Starter's Orders and will then start on the showing of the Green Light.

THE STORY OF THE MOTO-CROSS DES NATIONS

AFTER the war there was such a boom in motor cycle scrambling that the need was felt for an international event, and so, in 1947, a three-cornered match between Great Britain, Belgium and the Netherlands was organised over sandy paths at Duinrell in Holland. A complicated system of marking resulted in a win for our "A" Team, consisting of Ray, Nicholson and Rist, although the popular giant, Auguste Mingels of Belgium, was already making fastest times.

The following year a better-planned event was held at Spa, the winning country being the one with the three fastest finishers from teams with a maximum of twelve starters. Sweden, France and Luxembourg joined the fray, but we already knew well enough whom our great rivals were to be, Moto-Cross having swept Belgium in the same manner in which Speedways did here in the '30s.

Watching their young and extremely dashing team roaring in and out of the trees, British supporters could not help being impressed. But when one of the heavy thunderstorms which characterise the district made everything so slippery our hopes strengthened. Surely these youngsters who kept the throttle open all the time would lie down on the wet adverse-cambered grass? They did—but there were others to take their place. In the end, the Belgians gave us a sound beating—and something of a shock. Fastest British finisher was trials star Hugh Viney.

So in 1949, at Brands Hatch, the A.C.U. made a big effort. On a very dusty course pitted with shell holes, the Belgian frames and tyres suffered worse than our own, and Harold Lines and Basil Hall were able to keep well in front, harried only by the tenacious Dutch rider, Reitman. Bob Manns was the third of our team home, and our Spa defeat had been avenged.

The following summer the teams met at Skillingaryd, in Sweden. On this occasion, to the delight of an enormous crowd, it was the Swedish team who were runners-up, misfortune engulfing the Belgians from the start. Johnny Draper completed the distance way out in front, with Basil Hall second. Fourth, behind Reitman, came Lines, with only one Belgian finisher in the first twelve, Marcel Cox in the seventh place.

— And so we were mildly hopeful when we embarked for Namur in 1951. If our boys had long ceased to dominate the smaller Continental scrambles, they all knew well enough what international Moto-Cross meant and had abandoned the last traces of an "after you, Charlie" mentality.

More thunderstorms made the many Camberley-type hills on the Citadel circuit almost unclimbable, but three years after our debacle at Spa we were still convinced that the worse the going, the better our chances. It was not so. We came out of the heats very satisfactorily, whereas the Belgians had the vile luck to see the great Mingels retire with broken forks, but in the final we were scarcely in the picture.

True, Ward led for a glorious lap, but this one white jersey was soon engulfed by yellow ones. True, too, that the Belgians appeared to be scrapping fiercely amongst themselves and several disappeared until only three were left at the head of affairs. But three is, of course, sufficient, and without question the Belgian team deserved to win. The finishing order was Leloup, Jansen, Meunier—an F.N. and two Saroleas—with Stonebridge and Ward following them home. Sixth was the amazing Johnny Draper, who, left at the start with steamed goggles, had motored slap through the field.

In 1952 we returned to Brands Hatch, determined to give all comers a run for their money. For the first time teams were reduced from a rather unwieldy dozen to half that number (the fastest three finishers still counting for the Moto-Cross des Nations Trophy).

This time the British team scored a convincing win with Brian Stonebridge (1st), Geoff Ward (3rd), and Phil Nex (4th).

Sweden was the venue for 1953 and again with five nations competing, the British Team, Les Archer (1st), G. J. Draper (4th), and Geoff Ward (5th), scored a great triumph, their nearest rivals being Belgians.

In 1954, the meeting was held at Norg (Holland), and the British Team, by some brilliant riding, notched their sixth win in the competition. Geoff Ward (2nd), Brian Stonebridge (3rd) and Dave Curtis (5th) putting up the best team aggregate on time.

The following year, the venue was switched to Denmark for the first time and Sweden gained a sweeping victory with the performances of B. Nilsson (2nd), S. Lundin (4th), and L. Gustafsson (5th).

Last year, the venue was again Namur and in one of the most thrilling races yet witnessed, Great Britain registered its seventh win of the series. The successful drivers being Jeff Smith, Geoff Ward and Johnny Draper who finished 1st, 5th and 6th respectively.

And so this year we return to Brands Hatch, where there will no doubt be a stern struggle for supremacy.

With the continuance of a championship on the lines of that which has proved so popular in the road racing world there can no longer be the slightest excuse to refer to the first man home in the Moto-Cross des Nations as any sort of "Champion." This event remains a team competition; let us hope it always will do so.

Bang on!

... that's everyone's reaction to The MOTOR CYCLE's thrilling eye-witness accounts and superb action photographs of important sporting events!

The same applies to every other feature of this world-famous journal. Searching road test reports, 'exploded' drawings of machines and components, articles by experts on touring, maintenance, riding, every motor cycle interest, appear regularly in its pages. This week and every week . . .
