The Mortimer Classic Motorcycle Club is pleased to welcome you all here today to our final classic scramble at Amey's Copse, Bennetts Hill in 2009, a very special event – our 75th Anniversary Scramble.

The meeting incorporates the final round of this year's British Classic Scrambles Championship that is yet again set for an exciting climax along with the Club's final championship races and a full support program featuring spectacular sidecar action. We wish all of them a successful days Classic Scrambling!

The club is privileged to play host today to many of the top solo and sidecar stars of yesteryear who rode at Mortimer Club events and who gave all of us who were there, some epic battles to witness and some wonderful memories of scrambling over the past 50 years. They will no doubt enjoy recalling memories of their battles, particularly at the fabulous Beenham Park, Padworth Park and Streatley Hills circuits.

Founder members of the Mortimer Club were Joe Challis and Alf Whiting seen here on Joe's Ariel outfit and who was our club President until his passing, a true motorcycling stalwart. Mark Bosher, another long time servant of the Mortimer Club took over as President in 2005 and we are also honoured to have the legendary all-rounder, John Giles as a Vice President.

Like Barry Nutley who has also written some of his memories below, I can remember cycling to Beenham on numerous occasions until I was old enough to get my first motorbike some 3 months after what to my mind, was the event that most enthusiasts remember as really putting the Mortimer Club on the map. This was the 250cc Coupe d'Europe, sponsored by the Daily Herald and held at Beenham Park on 15th June 1958. Yes, it really was that long ago!

No one who was there amongst the estimated 40,000+ spectators will ever forget that meeting and some of the riders who took part in the racing back then are here today. If my memory serves me correct, the Reading area also produced three British Sidecar champions. I wonder if you can recall the names of your favourites from that "Golden Era" and the machines they rode?

Have a great day, I'm sure it will be a really special occasion with the anticipated spectacular climax to the 2009 British Classic Championship organised by Dave Gittins. Along with the MCMCC Club Championships also being decided and with what is always spectacular sidecar action here at the Bennetts Hill, it just remains to wish you all a safe journey home and look forward to seeing you all back here next year.

Drive safely and PLEASE help the club by taking your litter home with you.

Yours in sport Mike Smith

Where have the years gone?

The memory of us two lads cycling from Wokingham to find the legendary "Beenham Park" is as vivid today as it was the day it happened. We had read and heard much of this famous scramble track and although not yet old enough to ride, were steeped in the excitement and lure of scrambling and the famous names who took part. We eventually found the farm, for that's what it was, just a farm but after permission was granted we were able to sample first hand, on our bicycles, those features of the circuit I came to know so well.

Larcom Leap, Blakey Drop, The Mudhole – they were all there. Further investigation revealed a tin shed in which we found old programmes, wooden stakes and ropes and the usual paraphernalia of a volunteer force.

This small army came from the Mortimer Motorcycle Club and were responsible for the organisation over many years, of a large number of off-road sporting events. The Club was formed 75 years ago and today's event is a celebration of those halcyon times and the great names who took part. The regular Club meeting place during the 'fifties' and 'sixties' was "the Turners Arms" pub in the village and whilst not a regular attendee, I was for a great many years a competing member. Sadly, very few of the "old school" remain, but their legacy lives on. The Mortimer Motorcycle Club was one of the major forces in the Southern Centre, organising British Championship solo and sidecar scrambles and motocross meetings, World Sidecar Championship events and even a 250cc World round.

The British Sidecar Cross scene in particular, owes much to the club and the Reading area became the nucleus of this branch of the sport spawning many famous names as well as many solo stars. Many of those great names have been invited along today for this milestone event and we hope you enjoy spotting and meeting the likes of the Rickman Brothers, Ivor England and the three-wheeled exponents from those glory days – names that became the stuff of legends.

The Mortimer Club is justly proud of its heritage, the role it played in support of a great sport – and we are delighted to welcome you today.

Barry Nutley

2009 BRITISH CLASSIC SCRAMBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

This year the championship is sponsored, for the first time, by "Classic Dirt Bike" magazine, a title published by Mortons Motorcycle Media. Although we have a new sponsor the situation in the championship standings is familiar.

In 2008, going into the final round at this very track, Adrian Cox led Andy Robertson by a massive 31 points. It would take a brave man to bet against Ady winning the title, "British Classic Scrambles Champion 2008". Until then Adrian had scored in every championship race, but two championship DNFs here at Bennetts Hill, his home track, meant that his gross score suddenly became his net (final) score (riders have to drop their two lowest scores to arrive at their final points total).

In the event Andy Robertson chalked up a win in the first championship race (20 points) and, despite problems of his own, fifth in the second race (11 points). Just enough to put him level with a devastated Ady Cox. But since Andy had a better record of wins than Ady, the title was his for the second time.

This year, with Ady Cox busy winning the European Classic Motocross Championship - 35-50 age group (congratulations Ady) and on the injured list more recently, the record is well known and needs little introduction, but Scott's form this year has been nothing short of outstanding, riding right into the Classic Motocross des Nations team. As a result they are tied on points.

All the leading contenders are here today including Carl Pope, long overdue a win in the series; Metisse specialist Dave Bell, a consistent scorer against, younger machinery; young Tim Dallaway (3rd in the series last year) and Paul Lippitt, the overall winner of the final championship round here in 2008.

Current Positions after 5 rounds:

1 Scott Hayworth	120 (5 wins)
Andy Robertson	120 (4 wins)
3 Carl Pope	106
4 Dave Bell	101
5 Tim Dallaway	66
6 Paul Lippitt	61

The championship also contains four classes, run together but scored separately.

Riders over 50:

1 Roger Dunford	78
2 Phil Anslow	59
3 Steve Slade	49

Up to 350cc:

2 Matt Fry	67
