CHAMPIONSHIP UPDATE...

The opening four rounds of this year's BYMX series have definitely had something of a Northern flavour about them visiting Yorkshire, Scotland and Cumbria twice - but for round five the championship now moves South setting up camp at one of the country's most iconic circuits Canada Heights in Kent. The Sidcup & District Motor Cycle Club along with ACU Events Ltd will be the weekend hosts on July 16th/17th.

In the Junior 65cc section Scotland's Alexander Brown and Manxman Jed Etchells were neck and neck over the opening three rounds but following his terrific four race winning performance at Dean Moor Brown on the MotoOne KTM has now opened up a 10 point lead in the championship race. Etchells will no doubt be looking to close the gap on his favoured sand terrain - and Ireland's Caillum Meara will be right up for the challenge too following his race win in Cumbria. Meara is currently fourth in the table just one point behind Twisted Seven's Harry Kimber. Continuing the theme of riders locked together in close points situations Colin Scott and Adam Dunn are in positions five and six with just five points between them.

1st Alexander Brown 188pts, 2 Jed Etchells 178, 3 Harry Kimber 156, 4 Caillum Meara 155, 5 Colin Scott 144, 6 Adam Dunn 139.

Carding the last thirteen heat wins on the spin Conrad Mewse from Somerset has taken a firm hold in his quest to be this year's Small Wheel 85cc champion. Mewse has won three of the rounds thus far and currently enjoys a sixteen point advantage over second placed Jay Hague from County Durham. Hague finished as the runner up in Cumbria giving Mewse a good run for his money in the early stages of both races one and two and a repeat of that form could well apply some championship pressure. Jordan Eccles, ACU academy runner Sid Evans and Twisted Seven Kawasaki rider David Keet occupy positions three four and five respectively and it's all to play for with just five points covering the three boys. Alfie Mountford has been consistent all season and he rounds out the top six.

1st Conrad Mewse 194, 2 Jay Hague 178, 3 Jordan Eccles 147, 4 Sid Evans 146, 5 David Keet 142, 6 Alfie Mountford 127.

With Tom Neal unfortunately out injured and with Rob Davidson picking up a wrist injury in the opening race at Dean Moor that left good opportunities for others to score valuable points and for Liam Knight to shore up his position as the championship pole-sitter.

Knight on the Maverick Racing KTM finished second overall in Cumbria taking one heat win but his lead in the championship increased to a more than healthy 23 points. Brad Todd was the superb overall winner at round four carding three of the race wins and he now moves into second place behind Knight. Jack Gardner on the MX World Honda posted a solid weekends work last time out and he's in championship third place. Jason Meara has now climbed into fourth place following his fine Cumbrian returns but also tied on points with Matthew Callaghan as unlucky Rob Davidson drops to sixth.

1st Liam Knight 182pts, 2 Brad Todd 159, 3 Jack Gardner 149, 4 Jason Meara 137, 5 Matthew Callaghan 137, 6 Rob Davidson 133.

Fourteen year old Adam Sterry racing the super quick Evo Tech/RMJ Academy Honda scored a memorable overall win last time out in Cumbria carding three of the individual race wins. This season continues to build for young Sterry last year's 85cc B/W champion and to his enormous credit he now sits third in the Youth Open class championship table. Jamie McCanney won his first BYMX race of the year in Cumbria and finished second overall with a typical gutsy hard charging two day display.

Manxman McCanney also moved into championship second as following a weekend of misfortune Ryan Houghton dropped to fourth. Nathan Watson also had problems in Cumbria with a race one no score due to mechanical problems but then recovered his situation superbly taking the other race win and third overall. Watson's lead in the championship is now 14 points from McCanney with Sterry 22 points off the top spot. Jake Millward and Mark Perfect are in positions five and six with just three points separating them and both guys will be sizing up the chance to go fourth with a good performance in Kent.

1st Nathan Watson 178pts, 2 Jamie McCanney 164, 3 Adam Sterry 156, 4 Ryan Houghton 144, 5 Jake Millward 140, 6 Mark Perfect 137

Round five will also play host to the ladies championship on the Saturday and the fourth round of the Adult two stroke series on the Sunday where Luke Remmer leads the 125cc section and Stuart Edmunds on the TM heads the 250cc section.
