INTRODUCTION

Welcome to Cadwell Park for the first vintage road race meeting of the 1989 season. It seems only a few weeks since last October when the 1988 vintage racing year finished on such a high note with some superb racing at this most picturesque and demanding circuit.

Cadwell has always been very special to me, I made my vintage racing debut here in 1966 and both my wife Sue and eldest daughter Rebecca had their first races as passengers here.

The circuit is better suited to vintage bikes than any other in the country with no engine wrecking long straights and lots of different types of corners where a skilful rider can make up time over a rider on a faster machine.

For 1989 the chicane just before the start and finish line has been removed so returning one of my favorite corners Mansfield to its former glory. This is the place to see some last ditch efforts as riders try a final outbraking manouever before the dash to the line.

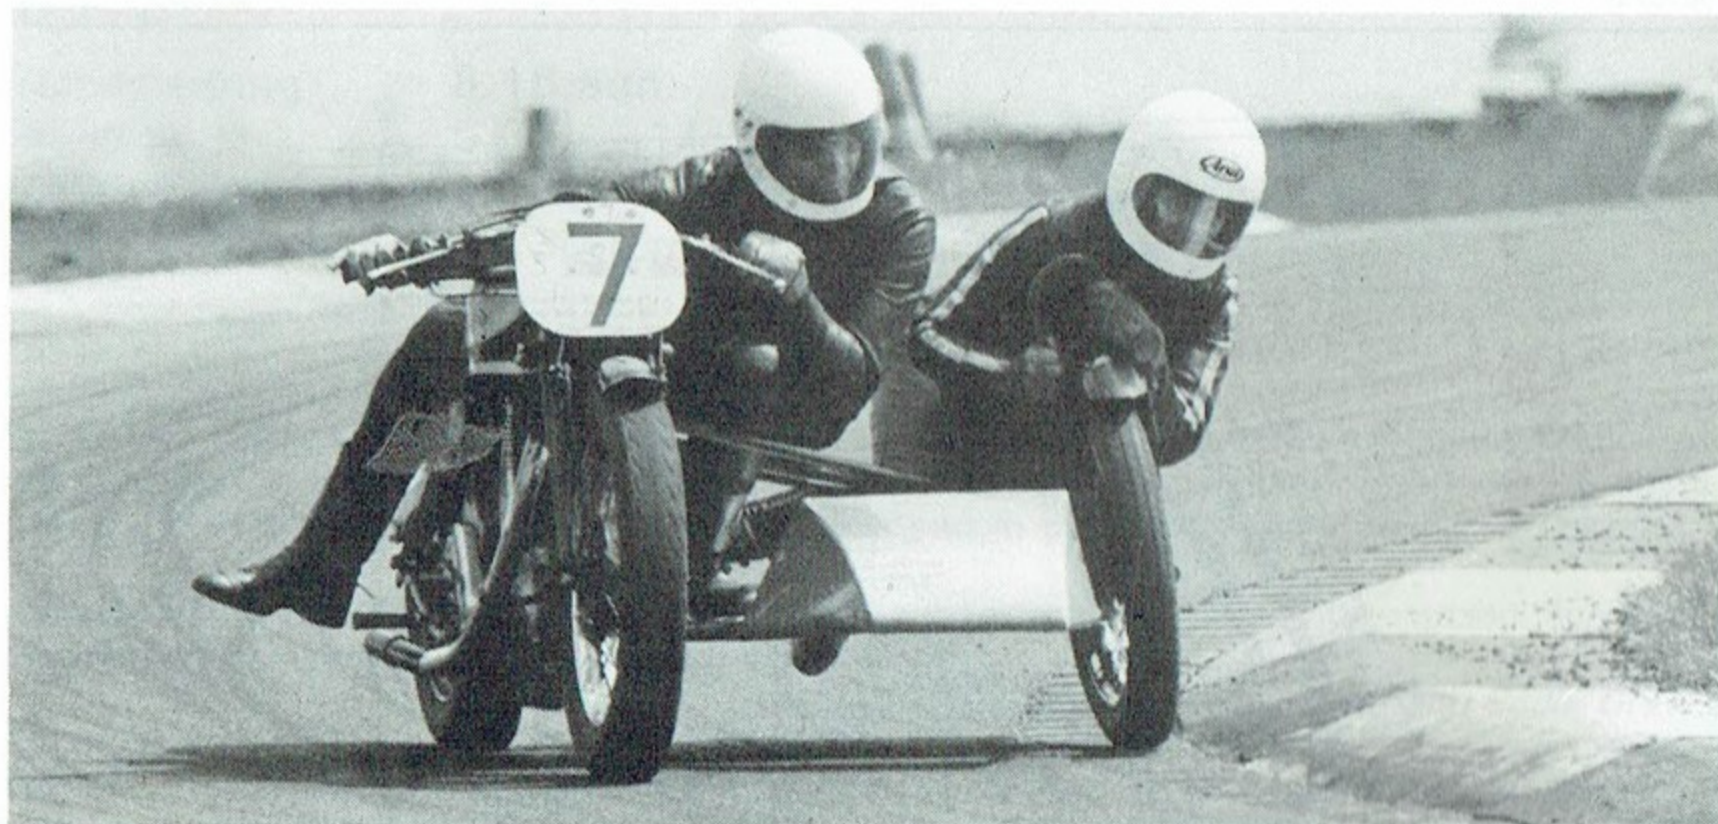

For the competitors today's meeting will mean that last years champions and winners will be out to carry on where they left off and some of our rising 'stars' and newcomers will be out to beat them if they can.

The majority of the competitors are here just for the pleasure and enjoyment of riding their bikes as fast as they can.

From an organisers point of view the officials, marshals and medical personel will be out to prove that they can run a meeting better than they have done before.

Spectators will see racing as it was in years gone by. Wander round the paddock at lunch time and marvel at just how well prepared and presented are the majority of the bikes. I wonder how many of todays modern racing bikes will be around in fifty years time, and remember if you would like to get more involved in the vintage racing scene we always need people on the organising side of things don't hesitate to ask how you could help.

Enough of my ramblings I hope the sun shines and all of you riders, officials and spectators have a real vintage day at Cadwell Park.

Secretary of todays meeting Sue Allen holds down the sidecar wheel of husband Rogers Norton outfit at Donington Park chicane 1987.
