JOHNNIE'S JOTTINGS

First of all the good news, Mike Ferreira won the Silver Helmet and in the next round is drawn against Paul Woods of Crayford. It was a marvellous performance by Mike, who won by two straight runs home and away.

Now you are saying we'll need another rider to bolster up our team after the way that Nottingham set about us last Saturday. Of course we need another rider, but so does every other team in the land. We are all looking for that Heaven like gift of a born champion from the midst of our juniors.

We have no alternative, says Wally Mawdsley, than to look to our own juniors for the necessary replacements instead of paying thousands of pounds for other people's throw outs. We will spend money on improving the machines of our talented juniors.

We have fortunately several youngsters of great promise, by looking after them, encouraging them and helping them we are convinced that in the next few weeks we shall be rewarded with a team that we can rely on to bring some valued points in the League Championship race.

I was so upset and disappointed by last weeks results that my mind went back to the days when Eastbourne came here and stirred the pot until it boiled over.

However, of all these things, there comes somewhere a silver lining to brighten the gloom and here we go tonight to meet the Scottish team. They do not come South for the fun of it, but for the Bawbees and the glory to take back to Glasgow singing "When we get a win on a Saturday night, then Glasgow belongs to us".

Next week we go to Crayford and I am not going to insult your intelligence by predicting a victory over that star-studded team.

That's all for now so bring on the Scots, let battle commence, here we go again.

TEAM UP

with Darrell Mason

I HOPE the weather stays dry this evening for these Tigers from Glasgow. After the steady drizzle which called a halt to the original fixture in April before a race could start, I felt so sorry for them for it is a long journey to make in vain!

Since then they have put together some very useful scores including victory at Weymouth in a last heat decider and losing out by only 40-38 at Crayford, again in a last heat decider, so be warned these Tigers really do have bite!

Steve Lawson, Alan Emerson and Andy Reid are as formidable a trio of heat leaders as any in the National League and I for one must say they have impressed me each time I have seen them....but I'm sure our lads will not need motivating, our controversial 41-37 defeat at Blantyre will do that nicely.

In case any of you might have forgotten, we went into the last heat with Mike and Ted needing a 5-1 to draw the match. The pair of them did just that....Mike first, Ted second and jubilation in the Crusaders camp. Or so we thought...that was until it was discovered Ted's chainguard had come off and Ted was refused the chance to leave the track until the officiating referee had been brought down to the track to see for himself. This he did and promptly excluded Ted for finishing the race minus his chainguard.

According to the rule book, the referee must SEE the chainguard come off at the time the race was in progress, which he didn't!

Needless to say, Ted was very agrieved to be excluded in this way and is determined to make up for it TONIGHT against the Tigers. I can tell all eyes will be on the opposition to see if anything comes adrift, so keep your eyes peeled!

On Tuesday we travel over the Medway and up the road to Crayford for a National League match against the record-breaking Kestrels and recent Durex National Four Team Champions.

The Kestrels are still smarting from the Kent Cup defeat Canterbury gave them at the start of the season and are anxious for revenge. Indeed, if we hadn't had to re-arrange our meeting with Glasgow for tonight, originally the Kestrels were due to be our visitors. Instead they come here on October 18 for the league match and certainly looking through our October home fixtures, they do look something rather special. October 4 is the Barney Kennett Testimonial meeting when Barney's brothers Dave and Gordon are among the starters. October 11 should see a thrilling clash against the pre-season title favourites Boston, then a week later against the high-riding Kestrels followed on October 25 with a revenge battle against Mildenhall who eliminated us from the Knock-Out Cup. We finish the season against the Stoke Potters and I'm certain that little lot will warm you up sufficiently for the winter months without your Crusaders favourites.

Before then however, we have Oxford here a week today without their number one, Dave Perks who was badly injured at Birmingham last month in a crash involving the Brummies American star Kelly Moran.

Latest news I have on Dave is that he has broken two vertebrae and will be out for the rest of the season but will not suffer any permanent damage.

What tragic luck that must have been to a rider who only six days before his accident had won the Silver Helmet from holder Les Rumsey.

Also remember we owe the Cheetahs a good hiding after we lost there by one point after a refereeing decision went against us.

CLUB NEWS

At last we have received the cost of menus for the club's Annual Dinner & Dance to be held on Friday November 7th at the Westgate Hall, Canterbury. They have as we feared gone up since last year, but we have as usual kept the tickets down as low as possible for club members. We hope to have the tickets on sale next week price £7.75 for members, £8.50 for non members, this includes a six course meal, dancing until 1am to our usual group (Acropolis) plus a cabaret act by David Legg. All the riders will receive a gift from the club plus the presentation to the winners of the 'Rider of the Year' award, 'Mr Crusader' award, plus a new trophy given by Mike Baker, our coach operator, for the best away performance. Dinner will be served 7.00 for 7.30, but if you find this too early and wish to come along for the dance and cabaret only, arrive about 9.00pm and you will be allowed in to watch the above awards. Dance only £1.75 for members, £2.50 non members.

Coach bookings for Wimbledon (N.L.R.C. September 27th) are going well, 2 coaches are already full.

Last week's tote: 1st 6364 £11.90; 2nd 6847 £6.90; 3rd 1145 £4.60.
