WELCOME FROM HOWARD STRAWFORD

Another meeting and another first, even though I thought we had done just about everything in the last 61 or so years.

Whilst we have had three 'Tours of Britain' visit us over the years, this is the first time we have held a special stage on the same day as a race. Those with long memories will remember the last 'Tour' visit here in 1989, when Jimmy McRae (father of the late Colin) was fastest and went on to win it outright from such prestigious names as Roger Clark and Derek Bell. Clark previously won one of the races here in 1974, with other names such as Ari Vatanen, Denny Hulme, Gerry Marshall and even Noel Edmonds featuring.

I can see we have some equally impressive drivers joining us this time on Tour Britannia, so hopefully 'Tours' will become a regular feature again. Clearly incorporating such an event within what is already a hectic race weekend takes some doing, so my thanks as always to our great crew of staff, administrators, marshals and helpers.

Enjoy your weekend and I look forward to speaking with as many of you as possible on my travels around the circuit.

SATURDAY'S ACTION - RACING MEETS RALLYING

Welcome to our very first combined race meeting and rally stage, with £50m of competition cars, billionaires and ex Formula 1 stars mixing with our best local racing talent.

Tour Britannia has established itself as the UK's premier 'race tour' attracting top drivers and Pre 1981 classic cars from all over the world. This year's tour, a combination of rally special stages, hillclimb, regularity runs and races is based predominantly in the West Country and Wales and on Saturday we host one of the 'stages' and two of the races.

One of the most successful of the 70 strong entry is 1985 Indianapolis winner and ex Tyrrell Formula 1 driver, Danny Sullivan. In a similar car, the former Williams Grand Prix driver Ian Ashley continues to demonstrate his versatility having driven every kind of racing machine from World championship sidecars to Touring cars and Formula Ford in which he competes to this day.

Porsches are not the only exotic machinery you can ogle. A full complement of 'DB' Aston Martins, Shelby Mustang, Jaguar XKs and 'E's and a gorgeous line up of Ferraris will all be taking part.

And it's not just the cars which are exotic. In the 'regularity' section are at least six titled individuals. Driving a Ferrari Daytona is Count Alexandre de Lesseps, the great-great-grandson of Ferdinand de Lesseps, the builder of the Suez canal, who also presented the Statue of Liberty to America.

Driving a Mercedes-Benz 220B Cabriolet is Count Joachim von Finckenstein with Countess Christina von Finckenstein.

Lord Irvine Laidlaw, one of the wealthiest people in the UK according to the Sunday Times 'Rich List', drives a Ferrari 250 GTO, whilst his wife Lady Christine Laidlaw has a Ferrari 275 GTB/C.

Billionaire Sir Michael Kadoorie, the utilities magnate and 6th wealthiest person in Hong Kong drives a Ferrari 250GT.

Closer to home, Dave Smithies from Flax Bourton, pairs up with fellow Bristolian and Austin Healey racer Eric Woolley in a BDA engined Mk1 Escort. The Escort was a winning car when the 'Tour of Britain' visited us in the 1970s. Roger Clark, the overall winner of the 1974 event, won one of four races here in July of that year and Ari Vatanen did the same in 1976.

For a touch of variety we also have a round of the SuperPro VAG Trophy, a championship catering for two wheel drive machines from the Volkswagen, Audi, SEAT and Skoda stables.

SUNDAY'S ACTION - HIGGINS HOLDS 'EM OFF

It's been a cracking season so far for the circuit's own three championships for saloon cars, sports and GTs and Formula Fords, which will be providing the bulk of the action today.

Still holding off his more sophisticated opposition in the Castle Combe Formula Ford 1600 championship is Adam Higgins. He has a 9 point overall lead with his ancient B class RF90 Van Diemen with another B class driver, Nathan Ward in the locally built Swift Cooper, heading a tightly packed bunch of drivers all looking to depose him. Last round winner Rob Hall in the Swift SC10 is certainly one of them.

Within range are the Kevin Mills Racing team mates, Steven Jensen in the Spectrum 011 and Roger Orgee in the Van Diemen RF00.

Amongst those praying for rain will be 18 year old Luke Cooper, part of the Swift Cooper team based next door to us here. His 4th place in his SC92 at the last wet meeting puts him 3rd in class behind Higgins and Ward and a useful 11 points clear of David Vivian in the similar Wiltshire College run Swift.

Not having the season they would have liked so far, but not to be discounted, are Ed Moore and Andrew Jones in the Rays and Marcus Allen in the Wiltshire College Spectrum.

Also doing a rain dance will be Mark Funnell who shocked everyone with his race pace last time in the circuit's Saloon Car championship. The reigning Sports and GT champion put his ability well beyond doubt, having taken his relatively standard Mini Cooper to an absolutely dominant outright victory, leaving his A class rivals floundering in his wake.

Another potential 'giant killer' is Simon Norris who put his standard D class Honda Integra on pole, only to be denied a decent finish by an errant back-marker.

Deserving of his 'Driver of the Day' award last time was Nick Clark in his tiny C class Suzuki Swift which started and finished 3rd and therefore now heads the overall points table jointly with the almost similarly named Nick Charles in the B class Peugeot 106.

David Kift has his 106 very close to Charles and is a big threat just one point behind, whilst Clark's nemesis is Will Burns in the Fiesta.

If it's dry, the class A drivers looking to win the National Mobile Windscreens 40th Anniversary Trophy will be Tony Dolley in the 206 and Mark Wyatt in the Astra, whilst on the pace in all conditions is Tony Hutchings in the Audi TT.

Darcy Smith took advantage of the treacherous conditions last time to take his first win in the Castle Combe Sports and GT championship. He goes into this round 7 points behind Andy Shanley in the Radical Prosport who struggled for grip throughout the race but still finished third, as per his grid position. Smith's son Josh in the Invitation class Radical PR6 could also be a contender.

Bath drivers Guy Parr in the Nemesis RME98 and Des Andrews in the MegaHart 001 are both run by the Wayne Poole Racing team.

Ian Hall should be the man to beat in class B for highly modified saloon and sports cars in his 5.3 litre Darrian Wildcat.

The Simon Lewis Transport Books Formula Free single seaters, where anything goes, the Norris Designs open saloon series for 4WD Evos and the like and the Charles Saunders Food Services open GT series round off the weekend.

Watch out too for our late morning Jaguar parade to help mark the 50th anniversary of the E-Type, including the latest XKRF provided by Hartwells.
