Welcome to Castle Combe for our first championship meeting of the year with a programme that sees a couple of changes to our regular line up but as always remains full of action – just the recipe to rid us of those winter blues.

The 500 race has been incorporated into a 351–1000cc class and what a confrontation! Former club champion Dave Whittal-Williams (997 Suzuki) heads the fourstrokers including Steve Colville (F2 Champ last term) who now rides a Formula One cum Endurance 750 GPZ Kawasaki; Dave Madsen-Mygdal with his well travelled 1000 Kawa; and "Mr Showman" Dave Hill with the wheelstanding K100 BMW.

Roy Kennedy tops the two stroke troupe with the London Road M/c's RG500 Suzuki while Royston Keen, last year's 350 Champion, lines up on his ex-Fowlers reverse cylinder Yamaha.

A new addition to the racing is a "Battle of the Twins" event which includes Des Senior (Norton), Dave Hill this time on a Ducati (see if you can wheelie that one, Dave!), and Steve Crawford (341 Honda). Also watch out for Hillclimb champion Stephen Sherbird. An absolute demon on the switchback hill courses its going to be interesting to watch his progress today on the ultra quick swervery of the 'Combe.

Five wins from five starts, you would have thought club champions Mick Burcombe and Steve Parker could have rested on their sidecar laurels, confident their rear engined outfit was already more than a match for the competition. Not so. At Hullavington Mick unveiled his latest device, a brand new 500cc version of the all conquering MBS.

With Mick at the helm its bound to be a rocketship but the likes of Tim Rope, Dennis Seviour, and Dave Pearce are among those aiming to put an end to the Bristolians' domination. Also back in the fray after a period of retirement is fiery Welshman, Chas Greatrex who drives a 500 Windle with Jeff Webber as ballast.

Well that is just three of the many classes including; Classics, Formula Two, 125/250 Singles, Production in this afternoon's racing – What of the remainder? the traditional GP style classes feature top talent. Darrell Higgins (Fowlers Yamahas) goes in both. In the quarter litre line up his opposition includes; John Chattaway (Rotax), Tom Hutton (Yamaha), Coventry lad Kevin Bowes and Russel Benney while the 350s include our 250 champion Barrie Middleton, James Chattaway, Chepstow's Ray Edinborough and local lad Chris Lake.

Dominating the two Fourstroke grids (175–500 and 501–1000) are the Binnion team with Andy Bufton (last year's champ of the smaller class) Stu Joyner and younger brother Gary. In the up to 500 section, watch out for Manx G.P. double victor Dave Pither – 497 Seeley (yes, that's him on the front cover of the latest edition of Classic Racer), John Fitzgerald, Steve Crawford and Rob Challacombe, while Dave Madsen-Mygdal, Steve Colville, Dave Pither (this time on a 996 Honda) and Dave Whittal-Williams promise a few early season fireworks.
