N.G.M.C.C. ** COLERNE (Wiltshire) ** Sunday 10th April

Colerne, is the venue for this, round two of the seven round series that makes up the Gloucester Kawasaki/R.A.F. Motor Sport Championship Series.

After a foray into South Wales for round one at Pembrey, it's back to more familiar territory, and the 1.9 mile Colerne venue. Colerne, has been a part of the North Gloucester scene now for over 15 years, and the circuit has gone through many changes, but the present layout makes for very even racing, making a 250cc TZ Yamaha versus ZXR 750 Kawasaki a close run thing.

The current, Man-on-Form, must be Warwick's Philip Weston, he has been taking victories all over the country during the early season on his new ZXR 750 Kawasaki. Philip's early racing career, during the late '70s was also aboard a Kawasaki, but a very different mount indeed, that was a production Z650, that was also when he started his winning, taking the Production Championship in '77.

Current, British ACU Clubmans Champion, Vince Nolan, from Chippenham has finished in the top three of the 250cc and 350cc NGMCC Championships for the last two years. His key to success is an immaculately prepared TZ 250 Yamaha and amazing consistency. Although he is still looking for that illusive first North Glos final win, his record of top three placings is hard to match. Vince, will for sure be going all out for victory here, but will face some tough opposition from Bristol's Daniel Roberts and Bridgwater's Nick Facey, who both also use TZ 250 Yamahas. Current 250 class champion Neil Higgs had an almighty scare here last year when Darrell Higgins ran into him on the run down to Forest Curve, both men came out of the ordeal unscathed, and Higgs went on to take second in the race.

Melksham's Darrell Higgins, will be looking to get out infront during the 600cc final, because that is where he is most happy to be. Higgins, aboard his now aging TZ350 Yamaha is one of the hardest riders on the grid, and once he heads a race field there is little chance of him getting caught. The two-stroke 350cc, is pitted against the modern breed of 600cc four-stroke supersport machines, like Honda's CBR and Yamahas FZR, with the FZR the most popular at this level of racing. Didcot's Paul Thomas, Pewsey's Andrew Baxter and Swindon's Lee Dyer all use the Yamaha marque. One frustrated spectator today will be 1992 class champion Mike Nickless, he was involved in a practice day accident at Keevil back in February, in which he suffered a broken knee and lower leg, as well as a back injury, he is now well on the way to a full recovery, but the machine however came off rather worse !!

The 750cc class is one of the most popular at World Championship level, now rivalling the Grand Prix events as the pinnacle of Motorcycling. At Club level it's a similar story as the ZXR Kawasaki, RC30 Honda, FZR Yamaha and GSX-R Suzuki are all evenly matched making for great racing. On paper, Philip Weston with his ZXR 750 Kawasaki must rate as red hot favourite. His challengers for race victory will include, Bristol's Kevin Ford on an FZR Yamaha, along with fellow Bristolian, and current Production Champion Jon Walter, who similarly has a race prepared FZR 750 Yamaha. Meanwhile, the 1988 Overall Club Champion, Dave Needham, continues on his comeback trail. Dave took the title back in '88 on a CBR 600 but now uses an RC30 Honda.

The 1100cc and open Fourstrokes events pit the 750's against the big one-litre plus FZR's and GSX-R's. The 750's have a slight advantage in being lighter and therefore more manoeuvrable, but the 1100's have outright brute power which can be exploited down Colerne's straights. Riders to watch out for include Southampton's Chris Hook, and Trowbridge's Barrie Middleton, both are using Suzuki's GSX-R 1100, and both are former class champions. Bristol's Ian Wiltshire, a former top Novice class rider, has been picked to race the ex-Paul Gardiner FZR 1000 Yamaha under the Team Godwin Racing banner, and is bound to put up a good showing.

The Formula 400 event allows riders to take a standard 250cc two stroke or 400cc fourstroke road bike and transfer it into what is virtually a race machine by changing exhaust pipes, carburettors, gearing and braking systems. Totton's Sean Noice ended last season on a high and will be hoping to carry that form through 1994 on his ZXR 400 Kawasaki. Meanwhile the majority of the grid is made up of 250's with Suzuki's RGV and Kawasaki's KR-1S. Seb Healey uses the RGV in his bid while the popular KR-1S is used by Eastleigh's Gino Palmier and Street's Garry Linham, who is current Novice champion.

Single Cylinder runner-up for the last two years Roy Perry will be looking to go one better this time round. The Cheltenham rider has a 680 Yamaha motor in a Spondon frame prepared by Race Techniques.

The sidecar class sees a battle between Ray Phillpotts/Steve Clements and Chris Nickless/Kenny Williams. Both pairings use fourstroke power but of a very different type Ray and Steve have a GSX 1100 Suzuki motor in a long wheelbase cassis while Chris and Kenny have a conventional framed 1296cc KOMNIK which is basically half a Cosworth !

Colerne is famous for close exiting racing, this meeting will be no different....don't miss it.
