N.G.M.C.C. ** COLERNE ** SATURDAY 23rd MAY

For round 3 of the 7 race 1992 North Gloucestershire Motor Cycle Club Road Race season we visit the 2.3 mile, Colerne circuit, last used 2 years ago.

The circuit is long and very fast with 100 mph laps not out of the question. Paul Willis was the first rider to achieve the "magic ton" back in May 1990 and is still the fastest man with a lap at 100.73 mph. Paul has now retired from racing and hung up his leathers. There are many more riders able to up the lap speeds this weekend though, Marchwoods, Chris Hook, Southamptons, Nick Williamson, and Bridgwaters, Russell Benney, along with Cirencesters, Royston Keen the men most likely.

The 250cc class is as close as ever with the top 8 men covered by just 6 points, and is at present being led by Bradford on Avons, Barrie Middleton, on his TZ 250 W Yamaha. What Barries 3 year old machine lacks in top speed he makes up for on the brakes and around the corners pulling back some 20 yards going into Anchor Bend at Keevil last time out just to stay in touch with the new TZ "V Twin" as used by SuperCup contender Royston Keen. The main challengers for the championship include, Chippenhams, Vince Nolan, on his Dymag Yamaha, Thatchams, Nigel Lambourne, and Bicester, Braddan Evans. Kings Stanley rider Jeffery Hill pits his lone RS250 Gower Power Honda against the Yamaha hordes, he missed the last round at Keevil but had a fine 3rd at Pembrey first time out and will be looking to build on that. Wrexhams, Beth Margrain, has ditched her 600 Single and now campaigns a TZ in the 250's it will be interesting to see how she adapts to the new mount.

The 600cc class has thrown up a few surprises so far this year. Chippenhams class leader Mike Nickless who rides the new RG Gamma is probably more shocked than most to find that novice rider Paul Thomas who had an excellent day at Keevil on his old RG 500 not only came past him but pulled away to take second place behind Hayles, David Butcher and his FZR Yamaha. These 3 will face tough opposition from two other FZR pilots in the shape of Cullomptons Paul Barker and Highworths Andy Stalker, another up and coming rider.

Leader of the 750cc class, John Schoenemann, from Bromyard failed to add to his points tally in the 1100cc event at Keevil when his ZXR 750 Kawasaki let him down, but John, a victor here at Colerne back in 1990 on his way to clinching the 600 class championship will be looking to close the 5 point gap between himself and the class leaders. The 750 and 1100cc superbikes are very well suited to this Colerne circuit when the machines can really be wound up, with it's "top gear, throttle against the stop, back straight" that measures over three quarters of a mile. Southamptons, Nick Williamson and Marchwoods, Chris Hook will be two riders to watch out for as their GSX-R 1100 are very rapid indeed, Chris suffered all day at Keevil with an electrical problem, while Nick walked away with 39 out of a possible 45 points for his days work. Cirencesters, Royston Keen once again borrows the ex-Paul Willis GSX-R 750. Keen had a race long battle with Williamson last time out having to settle for second place by just 3 one hundredths of a second. Bridgwaters, Russell Benney, returns to the fray after missing Keevil to compete in the Le Mans 24 hours race on the Phase One ZXR Kawasaki where he finished 10th in class. Russell has done a great deal of work on the "Riders" backed 750 over the last year to get the bike competitive for short circuit racing, but the question is how quickly can he adapt his riding style back to the 14 mile club, sprint type racing. Calnes, John Zebedee and Bristol Kevin Ford can also be assured to provide strong opposition along with Hungerfords Rob May on his FZR 1000 Yamaha. All the above riders will also be head to head in the Fourstroke as well as the 23 mile, 10 lap Unlimited finals, and believe me any one of them could take top honours.

The SuperSport 400 event is proving very popular this season with the two Kawasaki marques being ideally suited to this class of racing. The ZXR 400 and KR1-S 250 machines dominating the racing having it almost all their own way. Romseys James Gay heads the title chase on his ZXR followed by Steve Bateman, similarly mounted, and Gosports Robert Skiller on the first of the 2 stroke KR1's. Gloucesters Richard Evans and Chippenhams Nick Brown head the Suzuki Challenge on their RGV's. Class newcomer Dave Morris from Swanwick gives the lone FZR 400RR Yamaha it's first outing, the machine is an unknown quantity but Dave is a proven winner, taking victory in the Singles class at Keevil on a 750 Suzuki.

The Classic Bike event which revives memories of bygone days sees Bristol Dave Halmkin, 828 Norton, Gary Winton, 750 Triumph, and longfords Dave Degens on his 500 Dresda heading the line up.

The Sidecar class sees a resumption of the battle which started at Pembrey, continued at Keevil and now moves on to Colerne between the 4 stroke 997cc Kawasaki of Marlboroughs "BikeBuster" backed Roger Lovelock and Fraser Sutcliffe and the Dennis Trollope racing pair of Mike Skidmore and Steve Allen on their 500cc GP Krauser outfit. The Bristol pairing seem to be the only challengers to the so far all conquering Marlborough men. Skidmore, must be wondering though what he has to do to stay ahead of Lovelock as on both previous outings this year he has led, only to be passed in the closing stages, forcing Lovelock/Allen to set new lap and race figures in the process, will this be the turning point?

Colerne could be essential in the plans to anyone with an eye on a championship win as points are crucial at this stage of the season.
