AMCA NEWS

10th May 1999

AMCA Championships Underway

With the 250's and 750's having their first Championship rounds on Sunday at Elsworth, all the five classes are now underway. No surprises in the 250's with Sean Grosvenor leading from Richard cuff and Mark Craig while the 750's see a new leader Craig Chamberlain of the Kinver Club by one point from Clive Morgan of Shobdon with Barry Kelley third.

Illegal Practice

Several championship riders maybe disqualified from sundays round at Elsworth as they practised at the circuit within 14 days of a Championship round. This is against AMCA rules and the riders have been written to before a decision is made. This rule was brought in several years ago as it was felt it gave some riders an unfair advantage over those who lived too far away.

Sidecars News

Simon Bradford the Championship leader was a non starter at the 4th round last Sunday at the Chester Clubs meeting at Lloc in North Wales. Due to problems with college he is unable to ride abroad and has to reduce his meetings while studying for exams.

Ossie moves into 2nd place after winning on Sunday and is now 4 points behind Bradford with the Smith brothers 3rd and Roger Brain 4th. The Grahame brothers are now up to 5th place, while Stuart Lines who finished 2nd on Sunday is likely to continue with the championship.

4.Strokes

A reminder that the next round for this class is on Monday 31st May at Coalville and not Sunday as originally planned.

AMCA's Re-Union

The annual re-union at the Brownhills track is back again after a year off on Sunday May 30th and former members with older scramble bikes who want a ride can enter the scramble. We are looking for riders aged 40 and over or riders who had a four figure AMCA licence number.

Just ring the AMCA Office for an entry form, no licence required. Practice is not till 11.30am.

Reminder to Trials Riders

There are no late entries on the day for this event.

125 cc Team in Belgium

1st Round of the IMBA's European Championship is in Belgium on Sunday at St Lenaarts with Gary Davies leading the AMCA challenge with James Cumber, Simon Lane, Paul Willis, Mark Milward and Paul Cumber.

Lionel Beck is the Official.
