Coordinator's crack

Darren's bit...

A very warm welcome to the fantastic Farleigh Castle for the seventh round of this year's Acerbis Amateur Nationals.

The CT Events team was gutted to have to pull the plug on our previous round at Landrake but there just wasn't enough water at the circuit to keep the dust down and make racing safe so we decided to knock it on the head before everyone made the long journey to Cornwall.

This means we've just got two rounds to go and it's incredibly tight at the top of both the MX1 and MX2 classes.

James Lassu got injured last time out at Culham which has had a massive impact on the way the MX1 title fight is shaping up.

As a result, after 25 motos Ed Briscoe now leads Lewis Meadows by just three points and defending champion Andy Wilson's also right up there as well only 35 points further back.

It's almost as tight in MX2 where Belfast's Scott Hamilton has an eight-point advantage over Mitchell Meadows. Scott's the reigning champion and has set the pace all season before a pair of no-scores in the final two motos at Culham allowed Mitchell to close dramatically.

Rob Ainley's also in the mix as well so it looks as though things are going to go down to the wire this year in both MX1 and MX2.

By contrast, teenager Dylan Spencer is dominating the 125cc class and has an 89-point lead over Stu Owen.

Have a great weekend, stay safe and enjoy yourselves.

Darren Hudson
