Sidecars In Holland

Competing last Sunday in the Dutch sand, Ossie Osbaldiston and Michael Stones found the conditions difficult and have dropped 3 places from 4th to 7th. As expected, the Belgian, Eddy Nuyts, won all 3 races and leads the Championship with 267 points. The Newsham Brothers are 16th with the Smiths and Freemans both in 17th place.

NEXT ROUND ~ 6th JULY in BELGIUM.

AMCA Trials Championship

Following a protest regarding the Moseley Club Trial, which was the final round of the 96/97 AMCA Midland Trials Championship, the Club have disqualified Andy Bourne and Graham Walker. This still means that Bourne - even without scoring any points in the Moseley Trails - is the Champion, with Graham Walker and Pete Bailey scoring the same points for runner-up position. Graham Walker, however, gets second place as he had 4 wins during the season whereby Bailey had 2.

FORMER AMCA CHAMPION INJURED

DAVE FAULKNER, riding at the Burrington Classic Scramble last Sunday, was rushed to hospital after he crashed off the start line. Thankfully, he was not as badly injured as first thought and was expected home after being kept in hospital overnight at Hereford. Dave, who lives in Gloucester, won the AMCA 500cc Scrambles Championship in 1964 when he lived near Birmingham, and he returned to riding only a couple of years ago.

Ex AMCA Rider WINS The TT SIDECARS

ROY HANKS from Birmingham won the TT Sidecar Race on the Isle of Man last Monday. Roy, who has been competing on the Island for over 30 years, started with the AMCA in the 1960's riding a Norton along with his brother in AMCA Scrambles and Grass Tracks.

Many Congratulations Roy!

AMCA Championships - Extra Events

Due to the abandonment of the Marshfield Championship Moto Cross on 11th May, the outstanding races have been arranged. Because of other events abroad, it was not easy to fit them in and these arrangements are, therefore, only provisional until the organising Clubs have agreed to take the extra classes.

- 125cc - One extra race at the Hereford Championship round on 22nd June which will mean the riders having 4 Championship races. This arrangement is subject to no protests being received in advance of the event.
- 250cc - First 2 races - 29th July at the Clee Hill event at the Llan, subject to the organisers agreement.
- 750cc - First 2 races - 20th July at Haresfield, Gloucester, subject to the organisers agreement.

4 Strokes

John Hawkins of the Dursley Club was missed out of the qualifiers for the first round at Nympsfield last Sunday, but was allowed to race. He had qualified but was missed off the list.

Many apologies to all concerned.

Steve Hillary - 4 Stroke Former Champion

A former winner of the AMCA Championship on 3 occasions, Steve Hillary is not enjoying the best of health at the moment. Steve, who lives near Rossendale, won the Title in '86, '87 and '89.

All riders, past and present, will wish Steve a speedy recovery from his illness.
