FOREWORD

by JACK BURNICLE

Welcome to the fifteenth edition of the Hawkstone Park New Year's Day Moto Cross.

The Salop Motorcycle Club celebrates with its best sponsorship deal yet, courtesy of Mr. Tony Darby at Cradley Kawasaki, and an excellent line-up of past and potential winners.

Hondas dominate the scene. Number two in the 1988 British Open Championship, muscular north-easterner Jared 'Awesome' Smith, leads their challenge. Jared always relishes his visits to Hawkstone Park. The demanding sandy bumps are just his sort of going and he won this meeting last year.

Also previous winner in 1987 on a Yamaha, Honda UK's Rob Meek lost most of last season with a broken leg. But Honda kept faith with the fair-haired Nottinghamshireman, who made a spectacular return when he finished third in the Weston-Super-Mare beach race last November.

The rugged Berkshireman Mervyn Anstie has also joined the Honda UK squad, as has last year's teenaged 125 grand prix entrant Jamie Dobb. 'Swervin Merv' will be on a 500, Dobbie a 250.

Cumbrian Mayson Wear will also campaign a Honda, but the Scottish veteran Willie Simpson, who rode one last year, was still uncertain what he would be racing when we went to press. Whatever he chooses. 'Our Wullie' will be a strong contender for honours.

The Kawasaki challenge is spearheaded by last year's late season flyer Stuart Coyle, from Builth Wells, Cradley Heath's own Barry Johnson and ex-schoolboy Matthew Bates.

KTM is represented by that game trier Russ Jarman and local teenaged talent Paul Edmondson. 'Little Eddy' will be making his debut on a 250 from the Austrian company, who will be backing him throughout 1989 in the European enduro championship and the national 125 moto cross series. He finished second at Weston on a 125 Yamaha.

Yamaha themselves will be represented by their new signing from Honda, Julian Rawson, who will himself be returning from a back injury which cut short his 1988 season when he was beginning to show great speed and tenacity:

These and many others will be helping to halt those hangovers.

Hope you had a good 1988. Start your happy and healthy 1989 right here at Hawkstone Park.
