N.G.M.C.C.  KEEVIL (Wiltshire)  Sunday 15th May

Keevil, see's round three of the North Gloucestershire Motor Cycle Club, R.A.F. Motor Sport and Gloucester Kawasaki Championship series, and each one of the 18 class championship are beginning to take shape.

The Keevil Airfield circuit is a true rarity, with the majority of todays racing venues being designed for low lap speeds, Keevil, is a flat-out, throttle-against-the-stop type of circuit, where a top speed advantage can mean success. Current, outright lap record figures stand to Bridgwater's Russell Benney on a 750cc ZXR Kawasaki at 95.49mph. Russell, now team manager of the World Championship Phase One Endurance Team, occasionally takes time off from the managerial duties to compete himself. The good news for us, but the bad news for the opposition, is that Russell will be lining up on the grid for this meeting.

The 250cc class has Chippenham's Vince Nolan at the top of the pile, but the price of success has been great. At Pembrey for round one the 1993 TZ 250 Yamaha engine internals gave a almighty bang, destroying crank, crank cases and many other highly expensive Japanese engine parts, leaving Nolan, the current ACU Clubman's champion with a bill of some £1500. To prove the champion of the man he bounced back to take victory at Colerne just six days later. Vince, heads the line up along with Thatcham's Nigel Lambourne.

The 350cc class pits the newer 250cc machines (as used by Nolan) against the now ageing but still very quick 350cc TZ Yamaha's. Melksham's Darrell Higgins, Stockbridge's Vince Prevett, Stonehouse's Jeffery Hill and Kingswood's Richard Peers-Jones can all be expected to be fighting the 250's for top honours. Darrell Higgins, will be looking for maximum points after failing to score at Colerne.

Swindon's Lee Dyer and Ipsden's Peter McRobbie share the top spot in the 600cc event after two races but both riders are still to take a 1994 win. Dyer, uses an FZR Yamaha in his bid, while McRobbie sticks with Honda's CBR, a marque which took him to the 1993 novice championship. Didcot's Paul Thomas will undoubtedly be looking to make it two wins in a row after taking Colerne honours, but could have his plans foiled by current class title holder Darrell Higgins, on the 350 TZ Yamaha.

When it comes to the 750cc class the man to beat is Warwick's Philip Weston, he hasn't been beaten in a 750cc final since he moved to the class in July last year. The lap and race record figures have been lowered almost every time he competes, and although there is now a change of machinery from Yamaha to Kawasaki to story is still the same. You have to look long and hard at the entry list to pick out the main challengers. Bridgwater's, Russell Benney, '90 and '91 750cc champion is making a rare 1994 outing on the Riders ZXR, he is known to like Keevil, so if he can get back into the racing groove quickly enough he has a good chance of providing an upset. On recent form though Bath's Nigel Manning-Morton looks to be the man most likely on his ZXR Kawasaki, along with Newbury's Doug Randall who uses a GSX-R Suzuki, similarly mounted is Ringwood's Paul Denning who impressed many at Colerne. One other threat to Philip Weston could well come from some one well known to him....his brother!. Devizes, Chris Weston, has been improving all year, and with a similar ZXR Kawasaki to Philip there will also be family pride at stake. One class absentee will be Nick Williamson who came off his ZXR at Colerne suffering broken wrists...painful. Get well soon.

The 1100cc and Open Fourstroke classes feature all the leading lights on the 750 Superbikes as well as a whole host of one-litre plus machines. Southampton's Chris Hook, started the season well at Pembrey but the mechanical gremlins struck at Colerne when his 1100cc Suzuki suffered crank failure. Hook, the '91 1100cc champion must have a change of luck soon, Keevil could well be the turning point. Aldbourne's Paul Willis, a former Marlboro Clubmans Champion is having another good year on his GSX-R Suzuki which is one of the fastest on the grid, you can be sure that he will be in the top three at the flag.

Formula 400 is a class not for the faint-hearted, an event which pits highly modified 250cc 2-stroke and 400cc 4-stroke road machines head-to-head. The Totton rider Sean Noice has his ZXR 400 Kawasaki heading the championship at present from Southampton's Chris Hollis on an RGV 250 Suzuki. Surprise of the season is Bristol novice, Mark Routledge, he took his RGV to second place at Colerne to put him third in the title chase. He, also leads the Novice championship, and has performed well in open class racing....keep an eye on this rider.

The new NGMCC Classic Championship is very closely fought and the top six in the table will all be lining up on the grid headed by Tewkesbury's Steve Gibbs, on his 350 Honda, followed by Dave Smith (250 Ducati), Colin Bevan (750 Triumph), Gary Winton (750 Triumph), Ian Hardisty (250 Ducati) and Philip Ball (850 Triumph). The class provides us with a reminder of the sights and sounds of racing in the 60's and 70's.

Brothers, Mark and Richard Groves head the Sidecar class on their 1100 Kawasaki outfit, but with Andrew Saunders and Mark Perry showing impressive form this year on the 750 Windle and the Ray Philpotts, Steve Clements pairing coming good after a disappointing season opener at Pembrey it is sure to be all action from the spectacular three-wheeler brigade.

So, Keevil is the place to be with action all the way.

RUSSELL GARDNER.
