N.G.M.C.C.  KEEVIL (Wiltshire)  SUNDAY 18th JULY

This weekend at Keevil sees part three of the six round 1993 Gloucester Kawasaki and Royal Air Force Motor Sports backed Championship Series. As we approach mid-way in the title chase the race of points becomes increasingly more important. Anyone with an eye for end of year success must perform well at this crucial stage. The 2 mile, Keevil circuit always provides spectacularly close racing, as do all high speed tracks and with the outright lap record currently standing at to Bridgwaters, Russell Benney, on a ZXR 750 Kawasaki, at 95.49mph, this circuit can defiantly be called fast. See for yourself, as speeds top 170mph on the awesome Farm Straight. Russell, is forced to miss this championship round though due to his Phase One Endurance Team commitments. As the flag drops for Russell's race he will be Half way to Suzuka in Japan.

Title leader in the 250cc class Gavin Lee, the Oxford Products and Virgo Racing rider, is an unfortunate non-entry for this meeting. He came off his TZ Yamaha in the Isle of Man back at the beginning of June during T.T. and broke an ankle, he should be fit for round four in August though, so his rivals must grab this opportunity to get points-in-the-bank, because you can be sure the hard charging Southampton rider will be really fired-up when he returns. A trio of Chippenham based riders head the entry line up, all also use the popular TZ250 V-Twin Yamaha. Mark Walker, Vince Nolan and Neil Higgs are the riders in question, all have the pedigree to take the flag first, but keep an eye out for Bristol's, Daniel Roberts, a regular Supersport competitor, who makes his first North Glos, outing aboard a TZ.

So far 1993 has been a year to forget for reigning 600cc champion, Mike Nickless. The motor in his RG500 Suzuki, cried enough, during round one at Pembrey, and with just six days to rebuild before round two, at Colerne, the odds were well and truly against the Chippenham rider. Mike, will therefore be going all out for the win, which could prove a tough challenge. Didcot's, Paul Thomas, has put in two very impressive rides to head the points table at present, from Newport's, Vance John, Calne's, D'Arcy Lawes and Wells's, Alan Russell. Thomas, John and Russell use Yamaha's FZR 600, while Lawes, a recent Castle Combe winner has the use of Honda's CBR 600. Melksham's Darrell Higgins, can never be discounted, the 5 times NGMCC class champion, is always a threat on the DTR Racing TZ350 Yamaha.

When the big 750cc and 1100cc fourstroke machines come to the grid, the speeds increase, and the competition hots up, as ZXR's, RC30's, FZR's and GSX-R's all try to gain supremacy. The bikes are all fairly well matched at this level of the sport so it's more a case of the rider on the day getting the best from the machine. Calne's, John Zebedee, seems to be the man-on-form so far this season, the former grass track rider, turned road racer several seasons ago and with a new GSX-R 1100cc Suzuki, and the results have proved him to be a great all-rounder. John, currently heads the 1100, Unlimited and Fourstroke classes, and will be tough to beat. The riders currently challenging the Zebedee lead are, Frome's Peter Hudson, Man-of-the-Meeting last time out, and now on a more powerful GSX-R Suzuki, and Bath's Nigel Manning-Morton, who uses the lighter, more nimble ZXR Kawasaki. Also in with a shout are, Southampton's RC30 rider and former class champion Nick Williamson, Bradford on Avon's Barrie Middleton and Bristol's Paul Gardiner who uses the FZR 1000 Yamaha power plant. The list of riders who are well capable of the win goes on and on and include past winners such as Paul Willis, Jon Walter, Philip Weston, and making a welcome return after some 10 years Dave Needham. Dave, last raced with the club on an RG500 Suzuki against Roger Burnett, Trevor Nation and Barry Seward, the Keynsham rider has chosen an RC30 Honda on which to make his comeback.

The 400 Supersports class is the home of close racing. T.T. Motorcycles backed Mike Gadsby heads the table so far from hard charging Bristolian, Daniel Roberts. Daniel, runner-up in the class in '93 is hoping to go one better this season on his 250 Kawasaki. The field has a whole host of possible race winners, including Cheltenham's Rick Kwok on the quick FZR 400 Yamaha, Dublin's Seb Healy on one of the leading RGV 250 Suzuki's and Bristol's Guy Davies on the popular KR1-S 250 Kawasaki's. A close race is almost guaranteed, don't miss it.

The Tigcraft supported Singles championship is presently headed by Shaw's Jon Sinclair on a 680cc Yamaha. Eastleigh's Phil Daw, runner-up in the class last year will be hoping to open his 1993 points account here at Keevil on his 779cc Tigcraft. The same goes for third placed man in '92, Cheltenham's Roy Perry, who uses the smaller 680cc Yamaha, both riders have new machines this year and one can only put there lack of '93 points down to machine teething problems, because they have already proven there riding ability. The man most likely to trying hardest for victory is Cheltenham's Rick Kwok on the Race Techniques 680 Yamaha. Rick, has a reputation amongst the other riders as one of the toughest competitors on the grid.

The Sidecar class see's 1972 champion Chris Nickels, enjoying a new lease of life, now partnered by no less than former World Sidecar Championship winner passenger, Kenny Williams. They face Larkhill pair of Tony Chillcot and passenger for the day Tim Worsford, who are using an all new Kawasaki powered outfit. Tony's, regular ballast is presently holidaying in Antigua !, hence the stand-in chair-man. Two time Formula 2 sidecar champions Martin Waters and Tim Jarvis, are looking for a good steady ride today to get over the disappointment of there Isle of Man debut when their 600 Kawasaki, destroyed a crank.

Good racing form all classes is what we have come to expect, this time out will be no exception.
