Lord of Lydden Title Treat

THE Lord of Lydden shield has the names of some impressive riders engraved upon it - Dave Potter, Pat Mahoney and Barry Ditchburn to name just a few who managed to achieve international fame. More recently, the title race has generally been fought out between Tim Bourne, Gary Weston and Dave Redgate, but last year's meeting was an exception. All three were racing elsewhere, and it was James Bunton who led all the way on his FZR1000 Yamaha. Tom Knight bravely gave chase on his beautiful, but ageing Ducati 750, and although he caught Bunton on the last lap the power of the Yamaha kept the Edenbridge rider ahead. In the paddock afterwards Tom said sadly "That's it - I'll never win the Lord of Lydden now".

But as anyone who saw the Duckham's Trophy meeting last month will know, Tom bounced back with a new machine, the RC30 Honda owned by his employers, The Bike Shop at Faversham, and he beat 'Ted' Bunton relatively easily to win the trophy.

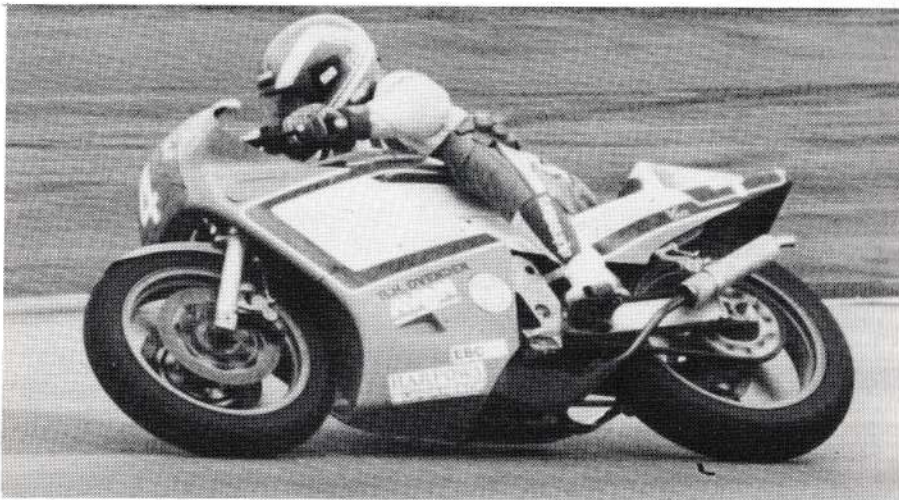

On the basis of that performance, Knight looked set for supremacy here, but now Gary Weston has submitted an entry for his CAT Motorcycles Yamaha. Dave Redgate entered early and is always a likely winner at Lydden, and there is also a possibility that Tim Bourne could be riding as well. At the time of writing the Ashford rider could not be contacted, but in any case it looks as though there will be three or four riders battling for the lead.

Unfortunately, the sensation of last month's meeting, Adrian Butcher, has to ride at Mallory today, so Mark Whiting could prove the winner of the lightweight classes, although if Richard Chesson can sort out recent problems with his Honda he will certainly pose a threat.

Since the press releases were issued for this meeting, Brian Reeves and his passenger Dave Fordham have entered so as to give Brian Nicholson/Colin Penfold some tough opposition in the sidecar event.

The Lord of Lydden event has a reputation for providing quick, close and exciting racing. Today's meeting should add to it.

KERRY DUNLOP.

IN CONJUNCTION WITH BARCLAYS FINANCIAL SERVICES LTD

AND FINANCIAL INSURANCE GROUP SERVICES LTD

Which covers each vehicle fitted with a VECTA for key loss and VECTA attack by a thief.
