MID WAY REPORT

Yes we have now reached the mid way point in our Championship Series, you will see elsewhere in the programme the points lists for our various Championships, judging by the few riders that have used their double points option, we must either have some very cagey individuals, or may be they have forgotten to use their double points, could be that they are riders with quick machines who will make use of them at Pembrey in August, where their high speed may well pay off.

To date our Overall BEMSEE Championship is being led by Steve Gridley, with Desperate Dan Harris and Steve Bedingfield equal 2nd only 4 points adrift, Andy MacDonald is upholding the budget end of racing on his LC in 4th place, with Trevor Stafford and Steve Lee in equal 5th place, only 21 points separating the first 5 placemen.

The Lydden Solo Championship is headed by Mark Whiting, who is 12 points clear of Ian Oatridge and Phil Green who currently share 2nd place, Ivan Hildige and Phil Hickey make up the top five.

The Lydden Sidecar Championship has a clear cut leader with Tony Chilcott and Paul Matthews being 31 points ahead of Phil and Glenn Wareham, equal 3rd are Jeff Matthews and Marie Wright, and Peter Knight chaired by Jon Hedgecock, Jeff might well have had a better score if he had not got over excited and spun the plot at Paddock, it was nice to see you used Marie as a cushion to protect the paintwork, is that really what passengers are for Jeff, fortunately Marie suffered no worse than heavy bruising, and was back out again the following weekend.

The individual Class Championships are all still fairly tight with the exception of the 250cc L C Yamaha, where Darren Mowat has a commanding lead, with over 60 points gap to the next man. With the exception of sidecar passengers we have only one of our lady riders appearing in the top five, that being Sonjah Parsons in 5th place in the Formula Junior.

On a rather sad note the operators of the catering facility and BAR have decided to pull out, therefore there will be no cooked breakfasts, or perhaps worse still no BAR in which to drown your sorrows, which means that all those kind souls who offered to buy me a drink look to have escaped, at least for the time being, as a new owner is being sought to operate the unit, lets hope that if it re opens, more use will be made of it, after all you asked for.

Yours in Sport

Terry Mount.

The Directors and Members of The British Motorcycle Racing Club hope that you have enjoyed today's racing and we welcome you to the remainder of the meeting tomorrow, which starts with practice at 12.30, and Racing starting at approximately 13.00.

You will find elsewhere in the programme a list of future meetings at Lydden Circuit, at the present time all are confirmed with the exception of the Winter Series Rallycross, where some of the dates are subject to change.

If you would like to help with the organisation of meetings at Lydden, either as a Marshal or Official, we would welcome your assistance, and willingly train you for your chosen task, please call at the Circuit Office or telephone 0304 830557.
