George Mackin,
Sales Director,
Philip Morris U.K.

The Marlboro Dunlop/Express Championship now in its seventh successive season, has rightly been described as a 'mini' Grand Prix series within the United Kingdom.

Its aim has always been to help today's Clubman racers become our Stars of Tomorrow. A spring-board, providing close competition at eight qualifying rounds, with the Final staged over Silverstone's fast and sweeping Grand Prix circuit.

These talent-seeking objectives are keenly supported throughout the competition by our friends from Dunlop Tyres. Apart from giving tyre service and advice at each meeting, they are again extending their sponsorship by awarding a race tyre contract, worth up to £3,000, to the rider who is voted Marlboro Champion of Champions.

Publicity plays an important part in any sporting challenge. Thanks to the enthusiasm of Ken Lawrence, the Daily Express Sports Editor, the Clubman gets greater recognition at national newspaper level.

Jimmy Brown, Managing Director of Silverstone Circuits, has been an active follower of our crusade since the first round in 1979. He has played a major part in establishing, at Silverstone, what we now call the "Clubmans Wembley."

For a contest to continue successfully there must always be a sound degree of professional control. So we thank Vernon Cooper, Chairman of the Auto-Cycle Union Road Race Committee and all the willing Club officials for their continued inspiration and guidance.

This season, F.M. Helmets will be awarding their protective Italian-made "Grand Prix" headgear to outstanding riders in both the solo and sidecar classes at every round.

On behalf of Philip Morris, the makers of Marlboro cigarettes, I wish the riders, mechanics, circuit volunteers, and all our loyal supporters, the very best of good luck.

George Mackin
Sales Director,
Philip Morris Ltd.
