MOTOR CYCLE RACING IS DANGEROUS AND PERSONS ATTENDING THIS MEETING DO SO AT THEIR OWN RISK.

It is a condition of admission that all persons having any connection with the promotion and/or organisation and/or conduct of the meeting, including the owners of the land, and the drivers and passengers and owners of the vehicles, are absolved from all liability arising out of accidents howsoever caused resulting in damage and/or personal injury (fatal or otherwise) to spectators, pass and ticket holders.

PLEASE NOTE DOGS ARE NOT ADMITTED TO THE CIRCUIT.

All names and other official programme including the list of competitors and their racing numbers is copyright and any person who copies, reproduces or otherwise uses the same without the written consent of the promoters, organisers and/or the ACU except for the sole purpose of personal or domestic use is liable to legal action.

Welcome to Mallory Park for the fourth and final round of the East Midland Racing Association Championships, and the penultimate round of the Gallifords Mallory Trophy.

Only one of the fifteen classes has been decided before today's meeting, the 350 production champion being Chris Webb from Nuneaton, who has frightened a few riders on machines three times the size of his 350LC.

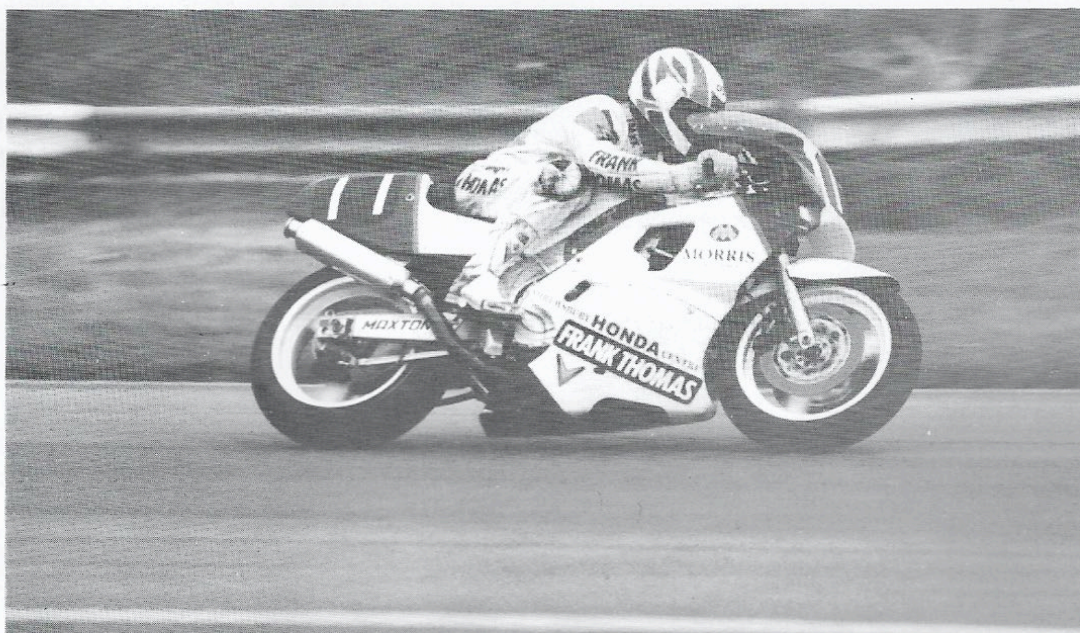

Another championship that might well go to Nuneaton is the Supersport 400 series, in which Carl Davis has ridden superbly in his first season, collecting a Best Novice award and opening up a 15-point lead over David Rawlings, with Neil Stafford stepping up from Earlystocks, Dave Weston and Graham Read all in with a chance. Rawlings also has a chance in the 250 racing class, which Mike Pomfret leads by a single point from Martin Ayles, with a similar 15-point deficit to make up.

Almost as close as the 250 is the 125cc championship, in which Shaun Lane holds a three point advantage over James Crumpton, who was unlucky enough to miss qualifying for the Supercup race by 7/100ths of a second. Crumpton will need a repeat of his double victory in May to be sure of success, but Lane scored a double in April. Harjit Kandola looks favourite for the 125 Supersport title (or Ministocks), but three wins from four finishes shows Kevin Smith cannot be ruled out, while Niall Leeson and Kevin Parker could close the gap.

Only two riders have maintained a 100% record, Tim Lee in the 400 racing class and Mark Ford in the 250 singles, and only a severe upset will stop them from taking their respective titles today.

Dave Smith is the man with the most to gain from today's racing, for he leads three championships, the Drayton Croft 1300 Four-stroke, the 750 racing series, and the Gallifords. Dave is certainly favourite in the Drayton Croft series, holding an 18-point lead over Griff Roberts with Neil Parker a further four points behind, and just one second place from his two rides will be enough. The Coventry Engine Components-backed 750 championship is closer, with Mike Pomfret the nearest challenger seven points adrift. Mike has won nine races in various classes this year, more than any other rider, and certainly deserves at least one championship to his credit, and he carried out some stringent testing on the fairing of his Yamaha at the Supercup meeting (twice).

NEIL PARKER
CAN HE MAKE IT 3 WINS IN A ROW

FIRST CHAMPION OF 1992

The battles in the Gallifords Trophy have been breathtaking, and a superb win by Neil Parker in the last round in May closed the gap on Dave Smith to twelve points. With double points (and money) on the last round on 9th August, this one is still wide open.

Simon Sawford seems to be well in control in the Supersport 600 class, while Mark Eilledge has taken over the lead of the 1300 production series from Sandra Barnett. Sandra's chances were not helped at the May meeting when her usual EXUP was out of commission and she rode a borrowed ZXR400, scoring points in both races from the back of the grid. There are all too few women racers, fewer still that are quick, but very few indeed that ride as hard as Sandra who could yet be the first female EMRA champion.

The sidecar championships are both close, with Geraint Roberts and Cerwyn Jones holding a three point lead over Roger Lovelock and Frazer Sutcliffe and Tony Howard and Mark Cooper three further back. Tony incidentally acts as Bill Gilroy's passenger in Forgotten Era events. Vince and Jamie Biggs have just one point separating them from Phillip Dongworth and John Luebke in the Formula Two class and will have to go all out for victory.

The programme is completed by the Earlystocks events, bringing nostalgia to those of us who are still quite young really. Barry Utting, the former Decorite rider has returned to the track after eight years away, and is giving Ian Wagstaff a really hard time in the 250 class. Steve Huskisson, easily recognised in Roger Marshall's old leathers, is the man to beat in the 550 class, and Tim Camp has been the top man in the 1300 class.

As this is the end of the club season, it seems right to express thanks to all the officials of the East Midland Racing Association, to the marshals, without whom the racing could not take place, and who were drenched in March and sweltered at the Supercup, to the circuit staff, and of course to Edwina and son David Overend. Finally thanks to the race secretary Jesse Markup (have I got it right this time?); for most of us a race meeting lasts one very full day, for the secretary it starts weeks in advance.

Oh yes, nearly forgot; please don't park by the paddock gates, it saves my voice later on. Thank you.

Robin Capon
