Front cover:

Stuart Digby (BSA no. 5) has returned to racing after a long lay-off, but it didn't take him long to get his ex-Krukowski outfit into the thick of battle with CRMC regulars Dennis Etheridge (no. 14), John Anson, Tony Holmshaw and 'Scruffy' McFarlane.

Foreword

Welcome to Mallory Park and the Classic Racing Motorcycle Club's 100 per cent classic race day.

Dedicated, as we are, to the preservation and use of post war sporting and racing machinery, we hope you enjoy our particular brand of racing where the machines are kept, as close as possible, to the same specification as they were during the Classic period. We only allow machines of a type that were raced during the Classic period to compete, thus preserving the golden years of motorcycle racing as close as possible to how it really was. A paddock visit to inspect these time wharp machines is recommended.

Mallory Park circuit is particularly popular with our 1500 members, with its high average speeds and tricky corners, which usually produces close racing. The first half of the programme (races 1 to 10) will count towards the CRMC 1991 championships, details of which are enclosed. The second half of the programme is purely for fun and for the sake of the machines, but that will not stop the riders trying to win!

We hope you enjoy yourselves as much as we will!
