SIDECARS ROUND 2

Simon Bradford takes a 1st round lead of 27 points into Sundays second round at Norley after winning all 3 races at Shobdon last weekend. Dave and Stephen Smith hold second place from Craig Edwards and Chris Whatmore. Making a return to the AMCA sidecar scene Alan and Andy Grahame after a successful career in Speedway, the brothers scored 25 points and will no doubt climb the table as the season goes. Alan has ridden sidecars before and father Archie is a well known former AMCA Sidecar champion. Richard York and Dave Bishop made a comeback at Shobdon and Richard is another rider whose father John was a successful sidecar rider. Sunday's round at Norley includes a qualifying class plus a large entry of solo's. Racing starts at 10.30am - Directions to this popular track are from A556 at Oakmere or off the A56 at Frodsham

Sundays' Events

The Middlewich Club Sidecar Championship Motto Cross has attracted over 200 entries while 185 riders will be at the Boraston meeting in the Border Group. South West Devon have an entry of 151 and on Good Friday Marshfield has 175 riders

Several events can take more riders and these include the Good Friday meeting by Uley Moto Cross Club at Nympsfield On Sunday in the Midlands, Shrewsbury at Conover have room for riders as do the Merthyr in South Wales and Shepperton Club at Mildenhall. On the Monday the Cheltenham Club have a good entry while South West Devon have room for more.

Bill Wright - Walsall

A former Chairman of the Walsall Club, Bill Wright died last week and the funeral is on Thursday April 1st at Streetly Crematorium at 1.30pm. Bill's wife Kath was club secretary in the 60's and he leaves a son Lee and daughter Sue.

Noisy Bikes

With the season just starting there are problems with noisy bikes especially in the 4 strokes, riders are warned that they may be stopped from riding if they exceed the limit.

Anthony Kahl

Riding in the AMCA - ACU joint Welsh 1st round Championship on Sunday organised by the Llantrisant club, Anthony crashed in the 3rd race and broke his arm which has ruled him out of the European Championship rounds in Germany on 5th April and Holland on 11th April. He did well in the first round in Switzerland last week finishing 6th overall.

AMCA Moto Cross Licences Up

An increase in the number of licences issued on the corresponding time last year with the West Pennine group 40 up. Licences per club are - Upton up by 14, Rugby up by 11 and Dursley up by 10, while the Coalville club are 20 down on last year.
