Rd2 - 250/500 IMBA - Fontenoy le Chateau, France

The second round of the 250/500 IMBA European Championship was held in France at the weekend. The rain started to fall heavily on Sunday morning creating very difficult racing conditions for the riders, as the gate dropped for the first race it was the Swiss rider Christoph Mockli who took the holeshot ahead of Paul Burn with Jason Rennie in fifth. Simon Lane and Nick Batcock had both made mid pack starts with Gary Parker at the back of the field after a slight mistake on lap one. Rennie started to pick off the riders in front of him one by one and was soon up to third, Burn was having an excellent ride and was lying in fifth, Batcock had started to cut his way through the pack and was advancing on the top twenty. Simon Lane was trying his best to adapt to the 250cc machine after so many years on a 125cc, Gary Parker was coming through the pack well, considering he was suffering from an ear infection. At the finish of the race Mockli won just managing to hold off Rennie with Patrick Kasper in third. Burn had an excellent ride to finish in fifth with Batcock advancing to 19th with Lane finishing in 25th just ahead of Parker in 26th.

The second race got underway and it was Dutch rider Anton van de Wetering who took the holeshot ahead of Burn, Lane and Rennie, Parker was in 16th with Batcock in 17th. Burn took the lead on lap two with Rennie following him in second. Lane was looking good in fifth until a mistake dropped him downfield, Parker was having a very strong ride through the field. Batcock was following Parker until he fell and damaged his shoulder, which left him with limited movement. Kasper won the race ahead of Frank Jansen-Teitz, Mockli and Rennie who lost third on the last lap whilst trying to get second. Parker had a strong ride through the field to finish 12th with Burn after a couple of mistakes slipping to 18th with Lane in 27th.

The third race started in somewhat drier conditions, the track was in excellent condition, Rennie got the holeshot ahead of Parker and Burn and Goovaerts, Rennie stayed out in front for 3 laps before Goovaerts passed him, Burn was third until a mistake dropped him to the back of the field, Lane was lying 14th. Rennie started catching Goovaerts and was nearly close enough to make a challenge for the lead on the last lap, Goovaerts managed to hang on for the win ahead of Rennie which was good enough to give him a superb 2nd Overall, Parker finished in an excellent 12th with Burn charging through to 18th and lane 27th.

Overall

1 Christoph Mockli (Sui) 157, 2 JASON RENNIE (GB) 151, 3 Patrick Kasper (Sui) 149, 4 Davy Goovaerts (Bel) 140, 5 Frank Jansen-Teitz 138, 6 Jelle Grade (Bel) 135, 7 Bohumil Svatos (Cze) 125, 8 Anton Van de Wetering (Ned) 105, 9 Andrej Krupa (Cze) 105, 10 Jimmy Huysmans (Bel)...14 PAUL BURN (GB) 86...15 GARY PARKER (GB) 74...25 SIMON LANE (GB) 54...32 NICK BATCOCK (GB) 25

Denis Parkinson

The recently announced Death of Denis Parkinson will no doubt bring back memories to many older AMCA members as Denis was involved with the televising of the AMCA Scrambles in the 60's for the ITV's 'World of Sport' programmes on Winter's Saturday afternoons. After ITV lost out on an exclusive coverage of the sport to BBC, they jumped at the chance to Televis AMCA events instead and Denis was sent to inspect several AMCA club tracks as well as advising at the events.

He became popular in the AMCA circles attending several social functions and could always be relied on to make the odd speech. The first track to be used was the old Dawley track, now buried under the Telford new town but he particularly liked the Brownhills circuit near Birmingham, (now buried under the M6 Toll). Others circuits used included the Brereton track near Rugeley, Bordesley near Redditch and the Polesworth venue, which is still used today.

It was undoubtedly through the publicity generated by the Televised events that the AMCA expanded from a dozen West Midland clubs to a National organisation with over 200 clubs. Plus we became known in Europe and were able to invite foreign riders to compete in the later TV events and it was not only the Television who took notice but we actually made headlines in the Moto Cycle Press which had never been heard of before.

Denis Parkinson (known as 'undulating straights') was a good friend to many in the Association
