1982 CENTURY OILS BRITISH MOTO CROSS CHAMPIONSHIP

Foreward by JACK BURNICLE

We move into the third round of the Century Oils backed British Motocross Championship here at Newbury today with the country's two outstanding riders of the last six years, Graham Noyce (Honda) and Neil Hudson (Yamaha) locked in mortal combat.

Both men have won twice and placed second and third in the previous four races. Last year, the Fox and Hounds circuit broke a similar deadlock when crashes and mechanical problems dented Hudson's title challenge. While the reserved twenty-five year-old Bristolian went on to become World 250 Champion, he had to play second fiddle back home to his extrovert contemporary, who claimed his fifth National Crown.

The pair are this year chasing the 500cc World Title which Noyce won in 1979, and have been in sparkling form to date, but they face a testing day round the tortuous Fox and Hounds track. Just stand back and enjoy their contrasting styles!

A healthy third in the table after coolly lifting two runner-up slots at Bootle in the second round, is Kawasaki's nineteen-year old Dave Thorpe, the local boy from Bracknell. Already leading the 125 and 250 Nationals, Thorpe twice won British Open Championship races during 1981 and will be looking for his first victory of the 1982 series.

Fourth place in the series is also shared by Yamaha's dashing young Gloucestershireman, Dave Watson, and Heron Suzuki's fluent stylist, Bill Aldridge.

Watson is Britain's leading contender for Hudson's vacant 250 World Crown this year. Aldridge, from down in Sussex, is riding the 500 GPs in the strongest British line-up since BSA's heyday in the mid-sixties! Part of that line-up, though you won't find him well-placed in the points table, following a disastrous start to the series, is former British Champ Geoff Mayes, returning to the track on which he clinched his title back in October 1980. Geoff has also returned to Malco, the marque on which he took that title, so expect a spirited performance from the tidiest rider around.

Sixth and seventh places are presently the property of Mitsui Yamaha's Pete Mathia and Roger Harvey. The lively Cheshireman and his determined Staffordshire team-mate, both seasoned campaigners, should feature strongly in today's results.

Harvey's home town of Rugely also produces eighth man, Rob Hooper, experiencing a somewhat fitful maiden season aboard the Vale Onslow KTM. The final top ten positions belong to contrasting Top 35 newcomers, Jem Whatley (Heron Suzuki) and Gary Woollam (Malco).

The undeniably talented Dorset teenager, Whatley, has had his early season marred by frequent spills, though his speed and potential are abundantly evident. Woollam, by comparison, has earned his points through commendably consistent finishing.

1981 top ten runners feeling the pinch this year include Whatley's team-mate, Jonathan Wright, undone by an early-season ankle breakage; Scotsman Willy Simpson, victim of several mechanical problems; and sturdy Lancastrian, Bob Wright, who had to miss the second round but will be raring to go aboard the British-built Armstrong-CCM.

Also unpleasantly injured, at Hawkstone Park's first round, Herefordshire's smiling Dave Tomasik (Cecil's KTM) will hopefully be returning to the track on which he scored his only British Motocross Championship win to date back in 1980. Further notable opposition will come from a South-Eastern trio comprising Kawasaki's fleet but fragile second string Paul Hunt, Honda's Steve Beamish and Mitsui Yamaha's muscular Perry Leask. Look also for forceful displays from Oxford's Mike Watts (Yamaha) and Derbyshireman Brett Steele (Maico).

The support championship is developing into a two-man contest between the determined young Kurt Nicoll (Kawasaki) and experienced ex-Top 35 runner, Mike Pearce (Maico). But watch out for a skinny kid called Mervyn Anstie on a Suzuki, if he stays upright long enough! He almost did at Bootle...
