FIRST ROUNDS OF THE CHAMPIONSHIP

First rounds of the re-vamped British road racing championships, the finals for the 350 cc and 500 cc classes, ensure that all the top-liners are here for this opening National motorcycle race meeting of the season.

Racing is organised by the Nantwich and District Motor Club and in a programme of 16 events, four lap heats and eight lap finals—includes classes for 125 cc and 250 cc solos and sidecars up to 1,300 cc as well as the championship classes.

A word about the 1969 championships. Instead of the results of every national meeting counting as in past years, only a few specified races in selected meetings will be taken into account. And there is a revised points system which the Auto-Cycle Union (governing body for motorcycle sport in this country) hopes will widen the scope of the championship results. The first ten, instead of six, finishers in each title round now earn points—these now being 15 for the first man home, 12 for the second, 10 for the third, 8 for the fourth; then 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, and 1 for the next finishers.

Most of the anticipated big names are included in the 350 cc and 500 cc fields at Oulton Park. Plus a few surprise ones: Northern Ireland's two leading men, University student Brian Steenson (Aermacchi and Seeley) and Ian McGregor (Aermacchi), and Australian Malcolm Stanton (350 cc and 500 cc Ducatis).

Leading home riders in these events include reigning 500 cc champion Dave Croxford (Gus Kuhn Seeleys), 350 cc champion Alan Barnett (Tom Kirby Metisses), Dan Shorey (Aermacchi and Oakley Matchless), Steve Spencer (Norton and Cowles Metisse), Malcolm Uphill (Nortons), Rob Fitton (Nortons), Steve Jolly (Higley Aermacchi and Matchless), Peter Williams (Arter A.J.S. and Matchless), Pat Mahoney (Aermacchi and Matchless), Bernard Randle (Nortons), Bill Smith (Honda and Hannah-Paton), Derek Woodman (Drixton and Seeley), Keith Heckles (Nortons), Tom Dickie (Petty Nortons) and Percy Tait (Triumph). These are the men to watch.

Lightweight aces Tommy Robb, Jim Curry and Gordon Keith are all having a go at the 350 cc class. Among the lightweights, Yamahas should take most of the places in the 250 cc final, with Uphill on the Eddie Crooks Suzuki and Steenson on the Aermacchi as the two men most likely to give them a run.

But the 125 cc class, which alone will be run as a straight final with no qualifying heats, is really wide open. Riders include Stuart Graham with his ex-works Suzuki, Curry, Robb and Steve Murray on Hondas; Martin Carney and Trevor Burgess on Shepherd Specials, Charles Mortimer and Barry Sheene on Bultacos, and John Ringwood on an East German MZ.

Heading a big sidecar entry are the names of B.S.A. exponents Chris Vincent, Peter Brown, Mick Boddice and Norman and Roy Hanks, and Pip Harris with his German B.M.W. joining the fray in what promises to be a fine old ding-dong round this testing parkland circuit.
