BOB McINTYRE

by

GEORGE WILSON,

Associate Editor of "Motor Cycle."

Robert McGregor McIntyre was born to success in the motorcycle field. He had all the gifts. A brilliant rider, he brought also to the craft of race-winning the attributes of the skilled tuner, mechanic, machine-builder. His riding career began in 1948 when he rode an Ariel in a scramble. He started racing in 1951 and he made his Isle of Man debut the year after that. Guided and counselled by Sam Cooper, Bob rode a Gold Star B.S.A. into second berth in the 350 c.c. Clubman's T.T. and set up fastest lap.

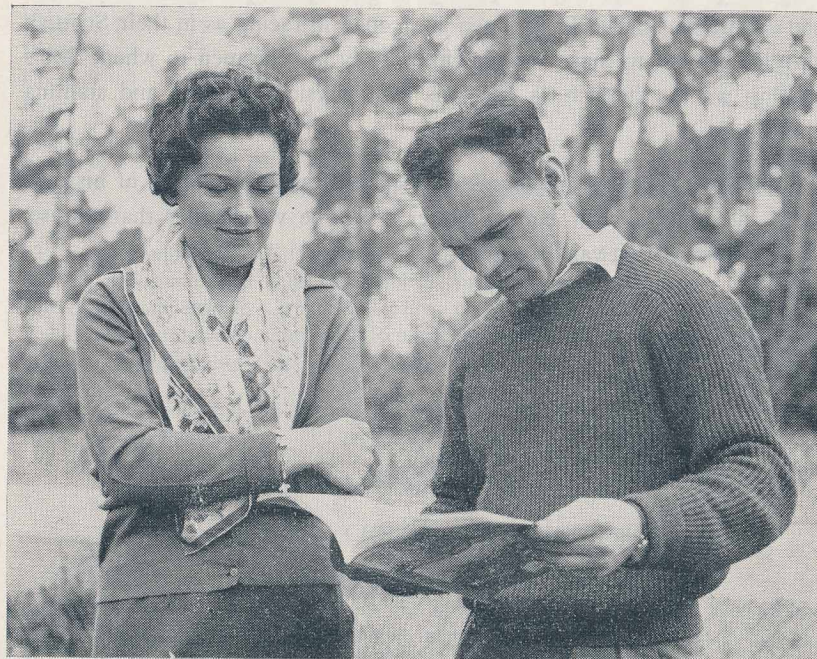

From that day on, the Isle of Man Mountain lap held for the Scot a fascination and a magnetism far transcending those of other circuits. In September of that same year he rode a 7R A.J.S. to victory in the Junior Manx Grand Prix. He did more than that. Two days later he again straddled the three-fifty—and finished second in the Senior class.

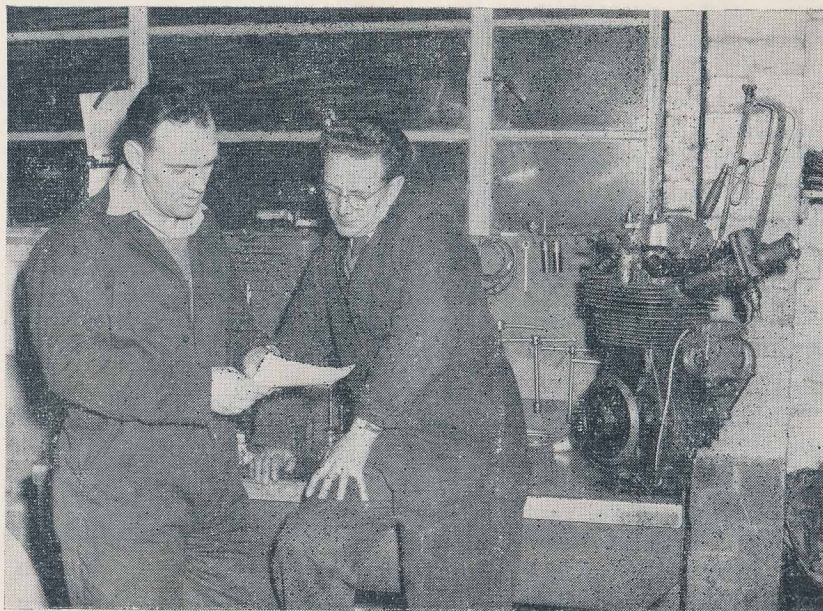

These steps marked the beginning—the beginning of a career that was to keep Bob at the top of the road-racing tree for a greater period than any other racing man has stayed there. He was a member of the A.J.S. works team in 1954, the year that finally signalled the end of the epoch of British racing supremacy. When A.J.S. threw in the sponge Bob "went home". He went back to riding Nortons for Glasgow's Joe Potts, with fantastic success.

Many will say that 1957 was Bob Mac's year—the year during which, Gilera mounted, he scored a Junior-Senior T.T. double and became the first man ever to lap the historic 37.73 mile Mountain lap at over 100 mph.

Slow, soft-spoken, Bob was every inch a man's man. He was a lover of truth, he had a hatred of factual inaccuracy. And to the making and the choosing of friends Bob applied the same ice-cold logic and judgment he displayed in the saddle. Yet friends of Bob had a friend in the fullest sense.

Ask Alastair King. Ask Joe Potts. Ask Pim Fleming, with whom Bob spent so many painstaking hours at the bench. Ask Scottish racing men of the calibre of Charlie Bruce, men as steeped in racing as in their Scottish birthright, but yet to make the big-time. They are the men to whom Bob's friendship was as staunch as were his own physical strength and stamina in the saddle.

Yes, Bob Mac was an enigma: but, above all, in the language of his own country, he was "a richt bonny fighter". Maybe we can let that phrase, then, form our parting valediction.

Demonstration races by Geoff Duke on a Gilera

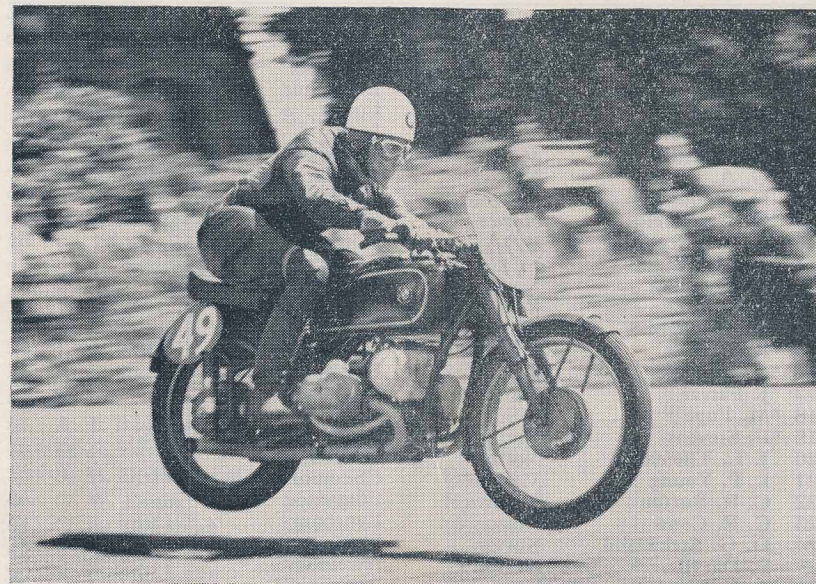

THESE MACHINES WILL BE ON VIEW IN THE PADDOCK.

Geoff Duke—one of the all-time greats of road racing. Quiet, modest and intensely keen, he swept swiftly to the forefront of stardom a dozen years ago. In the early 1950's Geoff won five International T.T. races and six World Championships, first on Nortons then on Gilera fours. Eloquent of his impeccable style and dash, this "Motor Cycle" picture shows him swinging his five-hundred Gilera round La Source hairpin in the 1956 Belgian Grand Prix. With a minute in hand and only two laps to go, Geoff was stopped by piston trouble, leaving John Surtees to win the race and his first world title.

Tough, trained to athletic fitness, blonde Georg Meier rode in only two T.T.s The second—the Senior of 1939—he won at the record average of and Georg Meier on a B.M.W.

89.38 mph after leading from start to finish on his extremely fast, super-charged B.M.W. twin. It was the German factory's only solo T.T. victory and the sole Senior to be won by a blown machine. As is evident from this "Motor Cycle" shot at the foot of Bray Hill, pre-war suspension was not what it is today—nor was the road there so smooth as now.

Followed by a demonstration by ALASTAIR KING on the 500 c.c. Matchless with the lightweight frame developed by Bob McIntyre.
