So we are out of the K.O. Cup, knocked out by the Wimbledon 'Dons'. But we went down fighting. 'Ifs' can make a big difference, for instance, 'if' only Ron had been riding; 'if' Jim hadn't had what was for him, a bad night; 'if' only Ken hadn't been so sore after a heavy fall on his back at Kings Lynn on the Saturday. 'If' John's bike hadn't caught the con rod malady when he was leading in heat 3. Excuses do not win matches . . . and we lost on the night. It was a pity, so let's wish Wimbledon good luck in the rest of their K.O. Cup matches.

The unfortunate accident to Ron upset all of us who were at Wimbledon and I was standing in the pits not ten yards from him as he hit the fence at full speed.

Tonight we take on the might of the Edinburgh Monarchs, inspired by that old war horse Johnnie Hoskins, whose son Ian is the promoter north o' the border. Johnnie acts as team manager when they come a-visiting. They are an attractive side, including George Hunter, a recent international and young Wayne Briggs, now recovered from his recent spate of injuries. They could give us a close one, even if all goes well for the lads. Let's hope it does.

Next week we have a challenge match against the Polish national league champions Gornik, who include in their line-up three World Finalists. This should be quite a match.

By next week we shall know how they have fared in their previous matches on the tour which started at Newcastle on Monday, July 12th. They are known as the 'Wembley' of Poland because they have, for a long time, been the king-pins in Polish league racing, and have, in the past numbered among their riders Pawel Walaskek, who rode for Leicester.

Let's hope that we don't have any rain before the meeting tonight as we did last week, it will make it easier for the track workers, who had a hard task last week. Our new lads Stan Stevens and Jim Heard shaped well on their first outings, wish them well tonight, when we take on Edinburgh, and again,

I'll be talking to you . . .

NUMISMATOLOGIST

Like all of us, Danny is an habitual collector of money. If you have any old coins or foreign currency, he could put to his collection, he would be very pleased to hear from you.

PROMOTOR'S PIECE

Our captain, Ron How, is still in a very bad way. On Tuesday he had to see a bone specialist for his shoulder and ankle. I will let you know tonight the specialists opinion is of how long Ron will be out of speedway, but remember these speedway riders get better much quicker than people think. So be with us and keep your fingers crossed for a speedy-way recovery.

Last week when we knew Ron would not be riding for us our phone was red hot and out of the blue to answer our call came Stan Stevens and Jimmy Heard. I'm sure when these boys have had a few meetings and get their eye in we will have a much stronger tail end.

Last Saturday at Coventry the boys with our guest rider Brian Brett really rode themselves into the ground and the final score Coventry 42—Oxford 36 gives the Bees a 6 point lead when we hope to fit the return meeting in September.

Congratulations to Jimmy Gooch who has been chosen to represent England in tomorrow's Test Match against the Russians at Newport. Good luck Jim!

Last Friday at Hackney the weather was not with us, it just wouldn't stop raining and Len Silver the Hackney promoter will have to wait a little longer before the Cheetahs give the Hawks that meeting to take the Cheetahs top of the league. At present the Cheetahs are 1 point behind with 3 matches in hand, so we are in sight of that golden position TOP OF THE LEAGUE.
