ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

SCARBOROUGH RACING CIRCUITS LTD. EXTEND GRATEFUL THANKS TO THEIR MANY HELPERS WHO GIVE TIME AND ENERGY AND WITHOUT WHOM MOTOR RACING ON OLIVER'S MOUNT COULD NOT CONTINUE.

OLIVER'S MOUNT

There's a lot of controversy these days about "real" road circuits as opposed to purpose-built race tracks. Are circuits like the TT and Oliver's Mount too dangerous for today's high-speed motor cycles? Or is there a danger, as in the Formula One car racing world, of world championship racing motor cycles becoming too distinct from their roadster counterparts because of the super-smooth, super-safe high-speed circuits being offered to them?

I personally believe that there will always be a place for true road circuits. I'm an avid TT fan, and an avid Oliver's Mount fan. The reason is simple: while I like watching the very fastest bikes, on the very fastest circuits, as much as the next man, I also realise that "road" circuits offer a quite distinct challenge to the rider himself. On circuits like Oliver's Mount it's the rider's ability that counts for even more than the machine he's riding.

So many great stars have made their mark at Oliver's Mount that it's difficult to know where to begin. Geoff Duke, Bob McIntyre, John Hartle, John Cooper and later heroes like Tony Jefferies and Jarno Saarinen have all ridden here.

I remember to this day the brilliant performance of the late, great, Jarno Saarinen around Oliver's Mount on his very first visit. He shattered lap and race records on his Yamahas and was over the moon with the type of racing he'd found here. He vowed to come back the next year . . . but alas, the Monza tragedy that cost him his life ruled this out.

I've been coming to "Ollie's" for a number of years now, first as an interested spectator with a rather battered Velocette Venom, then to do "write-ups" for The Northern Echo, Darlington where I was features editor, and now as editor of Motor Cycle.

Nothing has changed: the atmosphere is still as great as ever, the organisers still as friendly and helpful as ever, and the circuit, although considerable improvements have been made, as demanding and challenging as ever. Long may it be so!

PETER KELLY,
Editor, "Motor Cycle"

As a postscript, I'd like to thank one of the directors behind today's meeting, Les Siddle, for helping "Motor Cycle's" team of three CB400F Hondas in the Isle of Man production machine race. Les, of Lamplas, provided fairings and seats for the bikes, and anyone who saw them will agree they looked, and went, really well.
