Aces High!
by Paul Harmer

WELCOME to Snetterton's biggest date in its motorcycle road race calendar, the Race of Aces. A full programme jam packed with important championship rounds looks set to provide top entertainment and action all the way.

A new enterprising scheme by top motorcycle sponsor TED BROAD will see each winning rider's mechanic awarded a special £30 cash prize—a fine gesture methinks.

With such a top class line up for this afternoon's meeting I reckon its best to keep these programme notes as short as possible, full championship charts are produced throughout the programme enabling you to plot the progress of the stars.

It's pleasing to see Australian sensation Wayne Gardner present to defend his lead in the Motor Cycle News/Superbike Championship, regular road race fans will need no introduction to the man from down under who set the Cadwell track alight in the opening round. Just how Wayne will fair on the speedy straights here is anybody's guess but he's sure to be up with the leaders, be assured reigning Superbike Champion Dave Potter will need to be on top form this afternoon. An oversubscribed entry has made it necessary to run a qualifying heat on Saturday.

The Honda 125 Championship continues to be as closely fought as ever and Lincolnshire pair Phil Mellor and Pete Hubbard are split by just one point prior to today's fifth round. Also bang in form is Burton on Trent's Alex Bedford who made a welcome return at the beginning of the season after a badly broken leg had forced him into a long rest. Bedford's light blue machine grabbed maximum points at Cadwell's opener and then sped to third places at Oulton and Brands.

The excellent Shell Super Oil 500 Championship reaches round 5 this afternoon with Graeme Crosby on the crest of a wave with all four previous rounds to his credit. Chasing hard on the heels of the Suzuki is the stylish Kork Ballington and former British Champion Keith Huewen. It will be worth keeping a watchful eye on the whole field here, with riders like local ace Andy Bond — a consistent winner at this track — and young Gary Lingham around. Lingham's distinctive black and gold colours led the field a merry chase at the Brands round in the opening laps before engine trouble.

It's that man Crosby again who leads the Forward Trust/Motor Cycle Weekly Formula 1 Championship with victories in all three previous rounds. Enough has been written and said about the Isle of Man TT round and I think it now has to be settled over the remaining races — starting today!

Steve Tonkin is carrying on the Motor Cycle Racing/Vladivar Vodka 250 series where he left off last year — winning. In fact the immaculately prepared Ruth Randle Racing machines hold the top two places with Clive Horton in hot pursuit just 3 points ahead of Pete Wild, the last named being another Snetterton ace. Also in the reckoning must be Aussie Jeff Sayle on the third Ruth Randle machine.

Dennis Ireland has set the 1981 Race of Aces high on his list of targets for the season, the Sid Griffiths rider is anxious to recover his form of the '78 season when the Race of Aces was among his fine successes. A nasty accident during a now-famous photographic session kept him from the scene for quite some time but the opposition today will ensure he produces his best. Last year's 'Ace' Keith Huewen, now with semi'works support from Suzuki, plus '79 victor Dave Potter, outright circuit record holder Graham Wood, and newly crowned British Champion Bob Smith, to name just a few will be anxious to win this one which has attracted a full house of aces, kings and princes!

For many spectators the highlight will be the opportunity to see World Sidecar Champions Jock Taylor and Benga Johansson in action. Last year's fantastic World title gain by the flying pair has seen a favourable rise in interest in Sidecar racing. The Dennis Trollope/Fowler Yamaha comes to Snetterton with a narrow lead in the British Sidecar Championship sponsored by Motor Cycle Weekly, which they also won last year. What odds for the double again this year? Folkestone aces Derek Bayley/Bob Bryson have been in staggering form this season while other top sidecar men include former British Champion Dick Greasley plus Trevor Ireson, Mick Boddice and Steve Sinnott.

Guaranteed to keep you on your feet are the antics of the riders in the Yamaha Pro-Am series as they battle away trying to get the ultimate (and more!) from their standard machines. Pete Wild currently heads the table, with Kim Barker and Alex Bedford, so far, offering the main challenge.

Another new series for showroom models is the Motor Cycle News Shell Streetbikes series, again providing evenly matched racing with the accent on rider ability (and a certain amount of courage!) Rocket Ron will be looking for another win here but he'll be facing some tough challengers not the least of which may come from two impressive youngsters Paul Iddon and Mick Cole.

Well that's a short introduction from me, let's find a good viewpoint and watch the action!

The Yamaha RD 350 Pro Am Series is open exclusively to the cream of the country's 24 year old and under International riders. Competitors will be divided into two categories — the PROS — riders with proven ability in International events; and the AMS — "rookies" who have shown potential in the best of Britain's club meetings last season.

The machines are identically prepared Yamaha RD/LC 350 which have been recently introduced to the British market. Competitors will draw lots before the start of practice to determine which machine they will ride on the day. Points are scored on the basis 15-12-10-8-6-5-4-3-2-1.

Following is a list of the participating dealers:

MOTORCYLE NEWS/SHELL SUPER OIL STREETBIKES CHAMPIONSHIP

The new Motor Cycle News/Shell Super Oil Streetbike series is open to complete, fully equipped motor cycles of a model or marque produced in a minimum quantity of 1000 by a recognised manufacturer from all new parts for road use.

Alterations are strictly limited and only allow for the raising of footrests to increase ground clearance, the changing from one side to the other of foot controls, and substitution of disc pads and friction linings. Exhaust pipes must remain standard although they can be raised to increase ground clearance.

No racing tyres are allowed and only tyres of H and V rated (standard road tyres) may be used. The series is for showroom models which should appear on the track as they would direct from the showroom on the road.

Held over 8 rounds, each with a £1,000 prize fund, points are scored on the World Championship basis of 15-12-10-8-6-5-4-3-2-1.

Future rounds: August 30—Donington; August 31—Oulton Park; September 19/20—Marlboro 'Race of the Year' Mallory Park; October 24/25—Marlboro Powerbike—Brands Hatch.
