Hope you all enjoyed our trip to Wales, all those who didn't end up in Carmarthen Hospital that is!! We started the weekend with 23 TZR's and by the last race on Sunday we ended up with yet another red flag with just 9!! This wasn't totally surprising as the last time they all went off the line, just before the lights went green, one rider, who shall remain nameless (Paul "Mad Dog" Ling No. 5) shouted "Last one left standings a fairy!!" Oh dear!!! I have a constant problem with who to put with the TZR's as the usual reaction is similar to Neil Bradford's (51) at Pembrey ie. "Dave, please don't put us with this lot again!" I don't know what you mean Neil!! Anyway, this weeks lucky bunch are the MZ's, this unholy union came about when I was standing and thinking about who, if anybody, wouldn't notice the strange behaviour of the TZR boys. Just at that moment, Keith Howard (79) poked his head round the office door wearing THAT hat - "EUREKA!!". Anyway, now we know why Ron Ross (9) and Rik the stallion (1) go so fast, they're not trying to embarass the Formula Junior lap times (as they claim), they're just trying to stay clear of the fracas behind them!!

The LC's had some pretty hot battles with Andy Macdonald (1) back on form and showing our usual trio of front runners (Nick Saunders (2), Fin Reynolds (5) and Laurie Page (4)) the way home. In the 250LC's today we can expect our commentator Richard Ringrow to become slightly confused with Paul Hogan (42) coming out to play and trying to beat current 250LC hotshot Paul Hogan (8) to the flag!

The Formula Juniors had their fair share of excitement after Darren Thomas (18) won 2 out of 3 on Saturday, his engine expired on Sunday leaving the way clear for our very own Darren Mowat (20) to take his first victory since joining the FJ fraternity. I won't mention the fact that Richard Huggins (61) would have taken the win if he had hung around and waited for the lights to go green!!!

In the Open class, Welsh Champion Ian Rodger (1) was the man to beat with Mick Jenner (67) and Ivan Hildige (49) the most determined men to do it. Ivan eventually did the business in race 16 on Sunday to complete a fine weekends riding. The Singles class provided a week-end long ding-dong between Kris Holland (21) and Mark Pointer (3) with the overall nod going to Mark with four wins to Kris' two.

The Sidecar class was dominated by Ian Drowne and Nick Lloyd (25), but there were good battles all the way down the field with what looks like developing into an epic between John Easdown and Nigel Chapman (61) and Simon Kilburn and Geoff Holmes (58). John and Nigel have the purists version of the F2 with a 350 two stroke, whilst Simon and Geoff have the more modern 600 four stroke. Watch this space!! Whilst on the subject of sidecars, you will notice the front cover of this programme is graced by John Holland & Nathan Robinson who will be looking to re-establish their supremecy in the chariot class. We also have a second sidecar championship for them to go for, The Marble City Sidecar Championship obtained for us by the suave, sophisticated and evergreen Jeff Matthews!!

Wishing you a safe day and happy hunting !!

Dave.
