A.M.C.A. NEWS

If any clubs are interested in having races for Vets and Twin Shock classes in their events during the season please advise the AMCA Office. We need to draw up a list of clubs and dates so that riders can be advised in plenty of time.

In addition to the Vets on modern bikes for over 35 year olds and Twin Shocks solos we have also received requests from drivers of Twin Shock Sidecars. Would any club able to fit this class into a meeting please let the office know.

NOTE TO RIDERS

Every rider should take to every meeting a Bib which includes the riders racing number (back and front). Organising clubs will decide if the Bibs are to be worn, no advertising or other names should be included on the Bib. Numbers on Race Shirts are not classed as Bibs. The numbers should be a minimum of 6 inches high and it is recommended that they should be a light colour i.e. white with a black number.

Please remember lap scorers have to record every rider every lap.
