1977 INTER-CENTRE TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP

This year sees the traditional home of the Cotswold Scramble as the scene for this, the annual contest between the regional areas of the British Isles. Each area, or centre, selects its best riders to do battle at the Inter-Centre Championships.

Last years winner, the Eastern Centre, must start in a favourable position, while South Eastern, South Midland and North Western are also fielding very strong teams. The Southern Centre team is notable as the youngest and probably one of the most promising here today.

The local, Western Centre team, boasts three international licence holders - Bryan Wade, Dave Tomasik and Randy Owen, with Nick Toms as the fourth member; Mike Stephens of Hereford and Roy Hooper of Stroud act as reserves.

When the Championship races are finished, stay at your vantage points as the final races will give an opportunity for ALL riders to meet each other in the Allcomers Final!

The Stroud Valley Motor Club wish you a good days' racing. S.H.
