Superclass

Jason Rennie from the Chester club is the new AMCA Superclass Champion, after an excellent ride at this years he event he clinched the title from Aaron Crowder and Paul Burn.

Charlie Hollis who finished runner-up in the Open Championship last year could not understand the lack of riders at the event. "I just can't understand why they don't turn up, it is a great opportunity to win an AMCA Championship, the racing from the riders who turned up was fast and close, I'm sure the spectators enjoyed it".

1. Jason Rennie (Hon) 50, 2 Aaron Crowder (Hon) 45, 3 Paul Burn (Hon) 43, 4 James Russell (Hon) 39, 5 Lee Payne (Hon) 35, 6 Simon Lane (Hon) 26

SUPERCLASS - IS THIS THE END?

For a well-organised event, the Yorkshire Group of clubs must have been disappointed with the low entry at Finningley on Sunday for the Superclass Championship Motocross, which attracted just 17 riders from the top 30 of the 125 and Open Classes from last years Series, who were eligible to ride. The winner on Sunday, Jason Rennie from Chester, may be the last name to go on this trophy, which was first competed for in 1972. The trophy was donated by The Crusader Club, (now called Sedgley), in memory of Peter Cartwright who was a top AMCA rider in the 1960s, and died following an accident at an event in 1971.

Amongst the past winners of this Championship are Ken Myles from Ludlow, who was the first winner in 1972. Johnny Williams from Kinver won it twice, Dave Thorpe the World Champion won it in 1978 with Gary Evans winning it five times between 1984 and 1990. Previously this series has been run over three events whilst qualifying events are taking place, for which the top 30 riders do not have to compete. The meeting at Finningley in the sand was felt to be a good opportunity for riders competing abroad to gain some experience in these conditions and most of the riders competing in the IMBA Championships this year did make the trip to Yorkshire on Sunday.

Obviously serious though must be given to the future of this unlimited Class before a new format is decided. Entries for this coming weekend, Easter, are well over 2,000 for Motocross events with an average of 195 riders per event. On Good Friday the Marshfield Club will organise their traditional meeting, which has attracted 236 AMCA riders

Again at Easter, one of the biggest events in the AMCA calendar is the AJS Matchless Owners Club event at Red Marley in Worcestershire for the Annual Hill Climb, which always attracts a large entry of mainly Classic riders who now compete in fours on a knock-out basis. Last years winner, Arthur Browning, former AMCA Trials and Scramble Champion will be there to defend his title on Monday.

April 10th - Event News

The Pontefract club have changed venue for the 10th April from Crofton, they will now be running at Lovesall.

Druids have cancelled there meeting due to be held on the 10th April.
