Championship

The AMCA Motocross Championship start has been delayed again with the opening round on the 5th June which was due to be held at the Warmingham Lane circuit being cancelled. The same venue is being used for a two day meeting the previous weekend by the Sandbach club and to have another event the following Sunday may cause some local problems as well as in-sufficient time to prepare the circuit. The Group have been unable to find another venue.

The first round will now be held on the 19th June by the Bridgwater club at Enmore.

Qualifiers

The qualifiers have not yet been completed, the final event will take place this weekend at the Oakham meeting. The final list of those who have qualified will be completed by next week, riders who have qualified will also receive written confirmation.

Clubman Series

The entry forms are now at clubs for riders to register for the over 35 year olds series to be run later this season. Entry is only available through the clubs who then submit the names on the forms circulated.

Those clubs who have riders who wish to register are asked to run a round as last year several clubs declined. Depending on the number entering a separate class may be held for the over 40's or over 45's.

Championship riders are not eligible, neither are Junior riders, only Seniors and Experts.

It is hoped to run the early rounds regionally with the top riders having North and South semi finals and then a final with at least two events.

Last season the eventual winners were;

Over 30's - 1st Robert Glynn (Warsop), 2nd Ashley McGuire (Leigh), 3rd Chris Haynes (Cannock)

Over 40's - 1st Matt Butler (Warsop), 2nd Marc Spruce (Acorns), 3rd David Fisher (North Staffs).

For the 2005 Series the minimum age will be 35 as at the 1st June 2005.

Bradford and Morgan ready for battle

Simon Bradford and Simon Morgan head to the second round of the 2005 IMBA European Championship this weekend in Boekel, Holland. After dominating the opening round with 3 race wins Bradford and Morgan will again be looking for a good result in the Dutch sand to keep up their challenge for the title. Mark Banks and Peter Girling will also be looking for a good result after a strong eighth overall at the opening round, the rest of the team will be Alan Grahame / Tony Grahame, Nick Davies / Jason Davies, John Grahame / Scott Grahame and Colin Griffiths / Terry Griffiths.
