AMCA SCOTTISH CHAMPIONSHIP

The only Scottish Trials clubs affiliated to the AMCA are to hold the first Scottish AMCA Championship. East Neuk Wobblers and Montrose & District Motorcycle Clubs are to hold the round over six trials, across the summer period, of which each club will run three.

The first will be held on 25th April under Montrose and District and will be at Glen Trusta, Fern Brechin, with the last one being run by East Neuk Wobblers on 25th Augus at Drumcarrow Craig, Denhead, near St Andrews.

The championship will be run on the lines of a normal club trial and entries will close at the start and the sections will be suitable for beginners, Pre 65's, Twin Shock as well as modern bikes.

Although a new member of the AMCA the east Neuk Wobblers Club has already held three successful trials and as Montrose and District enter their third year it is obvious both clubs have managed to fill a niche in the trials circuit for good, informal and cheap trialing. Over the last two years Montrose and district has seen their membership swell from less than 30 members to more than one hundred, and East Neuk Wobblers already have more than 80.

Come along for a good day out with a great bunch of people.
All details of dates and venues will be in TMX.

Superclass

The opening round of the 2010 AMCA Superclass Championship gets underway at the excellent Shobdon circuit this coming weekend, defending Champion Ben Saunders will be looking to take the crown for the third successive season, main opposition should come from Brad O'Leary who will be looking to claim his first title on an MX1 machine.
