Ronnie Greene's Diary

Tonight we have the honour of staging our "Night of the Year" programme—The Laurels. We are particularly fortunate in being able to bring together the sixteen top grade riders in the country. According to present arrangements we should have a real thriller for 20 races.

As I write these notes I am, of course, wondering how we shall fare in the World Team Cup which was held yesterday in Czechoslovakia. All I can say right now is there will be great celebration this evening if we should return victors.

It has been a very hard week for the British team. This Czech meeting has come at a very unfortunate time, Peter, Ronnie, Barry, Ron and Cyril having been racing almost continuously since last Monday. We were due back from Czechoslovakia at 9 a.m. this morning and let's hope Mr. Luck has been with us. I know full well that the stadium will rock with excitement if, and it's a big if, the team are fortunate enough to qualify for a lap of honour before tonight's "Laurels" commence.

Next Monday its back to League racing; we entertain the new look Norwich. We still have a fighting chance to hold on to the League championship and we really must win this match. I only hope the recent rest has allowed some of our lads to recover the lost form which they have experienced recently.

The Yellow Star Social Club are organising coaches for the World Championship Final on Saturday, September 8. I advise all those of you who wish to travel by coach to book your seat as early as possible at any of the kiosks. It is difficult to obtain coaches for evening trips such as this, so don't be disappointed if you have left it too late.

On Sunday, August 12, coaches are also taking a party of our supporters to Swindon for the annual sports meeting between Oxford, Wimbledon and Swindon supporters. There are, I believe, a few seats left. Anyone wishing to join the party will be welcomed, I am sure.

There are some terrific matches ahead: Monday, August 13, semi-final of the National Trophy against Southampton; Monday, August 20, Final of the Knock-out Cup against Coventry.

Five Premium Bonds will be presented to holders of Lucky Programmes
